Absurdia Revival? May Be Soon!

Orinda Ass'n Will Be Responsible For Sponsorship

Orinda's musical follies, "Absurdia in Suburbia," produced by local amateurs for five years and then discontinued in 1954, may be revived this Spring, this time under the auspices of the Orinda Association.

Meeting this week, the association voted unanimously to temporarily accept the sponsorship of the popular musical satire which spoofed suburban living and was used as a fund-raising project by the Orinda Mother's Club.

The Orinda Association's endorsement of the musical review came after two women, Mrs. Marie Monahan and Mrs. Winnie Gilmore, gave an extensive presentation as to why the production should be revived in Orinda. Gilmore was associated with past productions of "Absurdia."

CONVINCED OF THE popularity of the production and that it could be financed and revived again this year, members of the association's board of directors were united in accepting in principle the sponsorship of the musical comedy. Details of financing are to be resolved in 30 days.

The financial ledgers of previous productions are to be turned over to the association's ways and means committee which is to make a report to the board of directors on possible financing. The association's civic affairs committee will also examine previous records on the event which was staged from 1950-1954 and then discontinued when the Mother's Club withdrew as the sponsoring organization.

It was stressed that if and when the Orinda Association assumes the sponsorship of "Absurdia," profits will be earmarked for a specific community improvement project such as improving the Orinda Community Center.

PRESENTING THE CASE for reviving the musical satire, Mrs. Monahan stated that she had made more than 50 telephone calls to Orinda residents concerning the project and that all the persons she talked to were in favor of reviving "Absurdia."

"It's a wonderful thing for harmonizing the community," she stated, "and for integrating newcomers." She further said that great factors in developing civic interest, "It's amazing," she stated, "how people jump on the bandwagon when they hear of it."

The two women explained that costs of production could vary from a few hundred dollars to several times that amount, depending on the lavishness of props, scenery and costumes.

They explained that it would be possible to tailor the cost of production to the amount of money the association wished to spend.

SEVERAL SUGGESTIONS were made concerning a project, such as a community dance, for raising some of the funds which would be necessary to produce "Absurdia."

Mrs. Gilmore explained that the cost of renting a high school for one evening performance and a rehearsal would be about $85. The women explained that the first year the review was presented it netted about $1,400. The second year, they said, slightly less was made on the production, and the third year netted about $1,700.

The best year, they explained, was 1953 when the review earned $2,300 during its three-night run. The last of the review netted $1,900, they said.

Mrs. Monahan explained that Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Downs, who were in charge of one of the most successful productions, had volunteered to take charge of this year's production.

COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS for the coming year are announced by the board. Dick Bartle was re-elected chairman of the planning committee with Ralph Hall serving as vice-chairman. Fred Twining was elected as chairman of the association's property committee and Bill White was named chairman of the membership committee.

Other chairmanships announced were Norm Cunningham, public relations, Holland DuBois, constitution and by-laws, and Gene Estes, ways and means.

Arthur Pederson was named liaison to the School Board. The treasurer's report showed a cash balance of $118 with debts of $298 to a printer and $364 in accounts receivable from advertising in the Orinda News. Present net worth of the association estimated at about $170 and a proposed minimum budget of $1,350 was presented for the present year.

TONIGHT'S THE NIGHT for the annual Fathers' March on Polio, to be conducted in Orinda from 7 o'clock onward. A few of the dads are shown getting themselves into the "proper" attire. Co-chairman Al Baer (right) seems to be having trouble fitting women's shoes on Dick Bottjer's feet, while Mike Wood looks on with an air of resignation. The other co-chairman of the drive is Stan Hunn.

Fathers March Tonight In Porchlight Campaign

Orinda fathers don mom's apparel this evening to make their annual march to aid those afflicted with polio.

The annual "father's march," patterned after the nationwide Mother's March for the March of Dimes, begins at 7 p.m. The fathers will be guided to homes of donors by porch lights.

Residents are asked to keep their lights burning for at least two hours due to the size for the area and the length of many driveways.

Fathers, recruited for the task because of the rugged terrain, will be wearing women's hats and bearing placards stating, "Tonight I am a Mother."

Following the conclusion of the door-to-door campaign, residents are invited to the Orinda School for the totaling of funds by Merle Brown of the Orinda American Trust Bank. Deputy constables under the leadership of Clinton Jones will be on hand to see that the funds arrive safely at the bank.

Coffee and cake will be served by the Santa Maria Catholic Women's Club. Mrs. Stephen Tool, chairman, will be assisted in the serving by Mrs. Lil Bastain, Mrs. Bettini Andersen, Mrs. Kaye Owen, Mrs. Virginia Stafford, Mrs. Rosita Goyen and Mrs. Helen Trescony.

The cakes are being donated by Phair's Orinda Store, Orinda Bakery, and Neldems.

Another suit, caused by the John Buncie stock swindles, has been filed in Martinez against a home and property in Lafayette of which William B. Acton, ex-assistant San Francisco district attorney, is a part owner.

Acton was secretary-treasurer of Pacific States Securities Corporation of Oakland, the now defunct brokerage firm of Buncie and Thomas F. J. Carroll of Lafayette.

Buncie is serving a prison term after pleading guilty to defrauding one customer of $20,000 and operating as a broker without a license. Investigators who delved into his get-rich-quick schemes, estimated that investors lost more than $500,000 through him.

Recently a civil suit for $85,000 was filed in Alameda County Superior Court against the stock firm and its three officers. Carroll was president of Pacific States and Buncie was vice-president.

The writ covers four lots, a house and guest home on North Peardale Drive, Lafayette, valued at $25,000. Acton said he had "a very small interest" in the holdings.

Most pessimistic of local operators was one independent in Walnut Creek. He told this paper, "If this thing keeps up and prices get any lower, I think I'll just lock up and go home."

He reported that prices had remained stable over the last week with regular at 24.9. He stated that his premium had remained at 30.9 although some operators had dropped the price a penny a gallon.

Sheriff Forbids Staff to Engage In Politicking

Sheriff Harry A. Brown this week put the clamps on any political campaigning by his deputies or any other members of his 125-man staff.

Brown's orders were underscored by a personal directive forbidding political activity, a pledge to be signed by all personnel, and a stern warning that disobedience of the order could result in fines and/or a prison term.

Actually, Brown explained in an interview Thursday, his mandate is only an enforcement of existing county civil service and departmental regulations.

"AFTER ALL, Brown stated, "this is part of the law and deputies are hired to enforce the law... they should be the last persons in the world to violate it."

Brown referred specifically to a bulletin issued recently by County Administrator D. M. Teeter. It stated, "No person employed under the merit system shall seek or accept election, nomination or appointment as an officer of a political club or organization, or take an active part in a county political campaign, favoring or opposing any candidate for election to a county public office."

Brown explained that political campaigning or criticism toward another member of the department or other officials is forbidden by law. Violators may be prosecuted for misdemeanors and punished by fines up to $500 and imprisonment up to six months.

ASKED AS TO what the crack-down stemmed from, Sheriff Brown replied that "this is a direct result of activities during the last campaign. I'm sure your newspapers are full of reports on that."

Sheriff Brown stated that recently he has had reports of two deputies who were said to be passing out political cards and handbills. "Another man," he said, "was making public speeches criticizing a supervisor. And for man wasn't even running for supervisor."

"This all goes back to the old spoils system," Brown stated. "With the merit system," he said, "men were provided with security. Now they want both the security and the freedom to do as they please during the political year."

SHERIFF BROWN has issued a new departmental order titled "Political Activity" and has distributed it to all division heads with orders that it be signed by all personnel and turned in on Monday.

On Thursday Brown told the press that to date personnel in several divisions had signed the order. "About two thirds of the men have signed it so far," he said. Brown stated he anticipated "no trouble" in having men sign and comply with the ruling.

Walkway Near School? Group Studies Problem

A general membership meeting of the Moraga Meadows Improvement Association was held at Glorietta School January 16, with Frank Eggertson presiding. New officers were introduced, a few announcements made and the meeting was then turned over to Tony Yriberri, chairman of the program committee.

The suggested walkway would extend from Robert Road to Orchard Road on Glorietta, and it was estimated that the cost would be $35,000 to $40,000, which would include grading, culverts and landscaping.

It was also pointed out that the county cannot construct sidewalks, but can work only in an advisory capacity.

There was a great deal of discussion as to how this walkway would be financed, but no conclusion was reached.

It was then decided to appoint a committee to investigate all facets of the question of walkways, and Mrs. White was appointed chairman.

Serving with her will be Kenneth Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hart, Mr. and Mrs. James Haloran and Mrs. Richard Copenhagen.

He introduced Mrs. Martin White, who acted as moderator of a panel consisting of William Koch, Orinda fire marshal; Joseph Sheaff, superintendent of Orinda schools; David Coleman, architect, and Tom Shreve, assistant county traffic engineer.

Home Authority Says 'Keep Mouth Shut'

Ousted Manager Says Job Depends On Her Silence

An ousted Contra Costa Housing Authority project manager who admitted she took $700 in rental money to pay a political printing bill said this week she would get her job back if "I keep my mouth shut."

Margaret Thompson, former project manager of the Las Deltas project, insisted, in an interview with The Sun, that commissioners of the authority assured her she would be reinstated if "she keeps her nose clean and didn't talk to the press."

"MRS. THOMPSON said: 'I took $731 in rental money to pay for several political printing bills. A. S. Johnson, administrative officer of the authority, discovered the missing funds and assisted me in obtaining a loan to pay the money back. Ronald Howard, then executive director of the Housing Authority, learned of it and I was fired without a chance to say a word.'"

"The money has been paid back and I have paid $3 in interest on the loan. They got no right to fire me without letting me speak my piece too," she charged.

"The printing bills were to have been paid by a collection in the churches of Richmond for the political campaign of George Dabney, who was running for the Richmond City Council.

SOMETHING went wrong and the collection was never taken and I had to get the money some way so I used the rental collection money. I intended to pay it back though," she continued.

Dabney ran seventh in an 11 man race for the Richmond City Council last spring.

Gerould Gill, chairman of the board of commissioners of the Contra Costa Housing Authority, completely discounted Mrs. Thompson's remarks that she was told keep quiet about her dismissal and the missing $700.

Gill said in an interview with The Sun:

"Mrs. Thompson was a good employee of the authority and this was the first time she had ever done anything wrong. She admitted that she took the money and that she replaced it."

"PERHAPS we should have taken legal action against her, but we did inform the Public Housing Authority and the bonding companies and if there was going to be any legal action against her it should have come from them," Gill commented.

"I personally think that Mrs. Thompson was sucked in by a bunch of sharp politicians in Richmond and she was left holding the bag."

"I really hated to see anything like this happen to her," Gill continued.

"OLD HER, after she was dismissed for her misappropriation of the government rental money, that she could apply for a position when one opened up, but as for telling her to keep her mouth shut, I think common sense would dictate that it would be for her own benefit," said Gill.

"Mrs. Thompson said that Howard 'had it in for me' and told the commissioners to tie her. Her faces tried Monday in San Francisco on charges of conversion of government property to personal use."

If found guilty, Howard faces a maximum of 10 years imprisonment and $10,000 fine.

Mrs. Thompson continued by claiming that Howard "has so much on the commissioners" that they wouldn't dare oppose anything that he said or claimed.

G. L. L. RETORTED to Mrs. Thompson's remarks by indicating that the housing authority has undergone audits and very few discrepancies have ever been found.

Among the discrepancies he noted the party which was given for employees at his Marsh Creek Lodge and paid for by federal funds; a car sold by Commissioner George Weiss to a Walnut Creek car dealer and in turn to the authority and "perhaps some discrepancies on the part of Howard in personnel matters."

"Maybe we should have filed charges against her if she is going to make these statements about the authority," Gill opined.

JOHNSON, who was reached at his Crockett home by The Sun, denied any knowledge of how Mrs. Thompson paid back the money, but noted he was the one who discovered the shortages in rental monies.

Gill commented that when Authority Comptroller Al Hills checked the accounts of the Las Deltas project, the money had been returned.

"I'm sure that if any of the allegations made by Anthon were true, the district attorney and other government agencies would have acted by now," Gill stated.

(FRED ANTHON, ex-maintenance superintendent of the Authority, claims he was fired because he told "all he knew" to a federal agent. The Authority claims he was dismissed in a budget cut.)

School Board to Discuss Orinda Recreation Land

At the regular monthly meeting of the Orinda School Board Monday evening, members will hear a report from Frank Isola, director of physical education and recreation, on the proposed new Sierra site for outdoor education classes.

Monday night's report will be a prelude to the possible acquisition of the new recreation site, which the school district deems necessary to replace the present rented site.

Explaining the school district's position on the contemplated property, Orinda School District Superintendent J. L. Sheaff this week issued the following statement to The Sun:

"THE TRUSTEES of the Orinda Union School District are in the process of studying the possibility of acquiring their own site for the outdoor education program which has been in existence in the school district for the past three years."

"The site has been offered to the school districts as part of the United States Forestry Service's 'Operation Outdoors' program. There is no charge for the site but the district would be obligated to provide improvements to be completed within a period of 15 years."

"The district's mutual science education classes have been conducted in the past through the cooperation of Calvea Ski Lodge, located on Highway 50 in the Lake Tahoe area. Because of the rapid increase in the number of participating students and the increased enrollment of our school district these facilities are fast becoming inadequate."

"THE SCHOOL DISTRICT feels that they have contributed a great deal toward the development of science and opportunity by offering the children in Orinda this outdoor education experience in the past."

"In the light of the recent emphasis on science throughout the country, it is felt that this program is even greater importance now than it was when it was originated. The board is faced with the problem of determining the probable cost of developing the site as well as the community's reaction to the expenditure of funds for this purpose."

"It should be noted that any educational program costs money and the board is well aware of the fact that any money spent on this site will have to be paid by local taxpayers. It has been estimated, however, that the improvements could be made for as little as 1 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents on the tax rate for the next four or five years since it is not necessary according to government regulations to develop all the facilities at one time."

"THIS SITE IS located near Highway 89 and is open the year around. Its development, therefore, would benefit not only the educational program of the school district but it would also be available to other recognized community programs."

"The program now in existence provides children with the opportunity of living together with mature leadership and each child is helped in his growth in sportsmanship, initiative, leadership and self-reliance away from home."

"In addition, there are on-the-spot studies of the national resources of California as well as an introduction of the fundamentals of conservation. Outdoor education is enjoyed by some 30,000 children in California. A half a million parents say 'Yes!' And their approvals are backed not only by schools and national education officials, parents clubs, city, state and county department of county heads, but most important, by the children themselves."

berlain, assistant county director of public works in charge of maintenance; Mark Kermit, county traffic engineer, and Shreve.

The county men explained that privately erected signs bearing traffic instructions are illegal, and, further, that the county could not allow the signs on county rights-of-way. The residents had been additionally irked by the fact that the "invasion" against the signs had occurred without any advance warning or notice.

AS RESULTS of the conference, regulation county signs were installed the next day at two points in Sleepy Hollow, a crosswalk was repainted at Sleepy Hollow School, a school crossing sign was installed, delineators and guideposts were authorized and agreement was reached that shrubbery encroachments are to be removed.

"Further studies are being made of the speeds in the area," Shreve said yesterday, "and a report is being prepared by the traffic engineer for submission to the group which met last week."

The lovely, rustic, $60-a-piece signs? Shreve said that they've been returned to the association with the proviso that they not be installed again.

$2662 Reached In New Funds For Library

With tabulating and callbacks still occupying the volunteers, incomplete financial results of the special drive for additional money for the Orinda Library Building Fund were reported at $2662 yesterday.

"That represents about three-fourth of the homes contacted or to be contacted," explained Mrs. Edmund Wilford of the Orinda Woman's Club.

Gill informed The Sun of results of a secret meeting of the Commissioners of the Housing Authority Monday evening in Martinez.

Supervisor W. G. Bud Buchanan of Pittsburg had demanded that fairness be exercised by the authority in personnel matters. Gill commented that there were some discrepancies in the facts as presented by ex housing authority director Ronald Howard to the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors in another secret session several weeks ago.

"Howard's statements about some long time employees of the authority who were dismissed were off but not too far off from the actual truth of the matter," Gill commented.

"Perhaps they weren't given the consideration they should have received in their dismissal," he continued.

Warren Harrold, executive director of the authority, stated no notices were sent out in accordance with the Brown Act, the anti secrecy in government law, since it was a personnel matter on hiring and firing.

THIS PREHISTORIC RAGE . . . Said one young fellow to the other in the Toy Villa—"I'm going to give her a real BIG one!" And other boy said: "What—a Dinosaur?" To which first boy bravely replied: "NO, Stupid . . . a Valentine!"

If you have among your brood, those who wear patches on their jeans & polliwogs in the pockets of same, you're already aware of the current Dinosaur craze among the young fry. Not to mention some of our braver young ladies who've dropped their dolls to set up housekeeping for a family of Diplodocuses.

IN A DINO STEW . . . Before the first cup of coffee is under your belt, icky-green plastic ones fall out of the cereal box. (Oh, those clever manufacturer!) On the refrigerator sits a far-from-gorgeous Gorgosaurus while a TERRIBLE Triceratops bares its teeth from atop the television set.

Bedtime stories about Brontosaurus are not OUR cup of tea and educational as the study of these BEASTLY BEASTIES may be, we prefer to peruse the pages of Winnie-the-Pooh. We ALSO prefer to find our young ones hugging a plush panda in their sleep instead of curling up w/ their latest acquisition of the King Kong clan.

We no longer get a kick out of the little bat that sweeps past our picture window when the lamp is lit. This erstwhile MICKEY MOUSE w/wings may suddenly change into a horrible RODAN or some such surly creature right out of the latest horror movie. Or the book we've been coiled into reading over & over again.

THE HOUSE IS OVERRUN w/wicked-looking animals. And even a collection of Bugs & Beetles would be welcome again. MOTHERS, we MUST muster for action. Divert from the Dinosaurs! Or do you think we're just an unreasonable reptilian crank? (Ugh!)

Orinda Firemen Form Reverse Bucket Brigade

Orinda's firemen, normally concerned with the amount of water available, had the tables turned on them twice during the past week when on each occasion more than three feet of water deluged the main fire station, doing extensive damage which is still unestimated.

The first wave hit Sunday evening when the incoming water broke up checker games, interrupted tele-viewing, floated fire boots out the door and came fender-high on the station's trucks.

Firemen estimated the depth in the firehouse at about three feet and said that such an enormous volume of water would have been impossible to pump out.

Officials attributed the cause of the inundation to construction which is currently under way on the new freeway which will connect Mt. Diablo Blvd. with San Pablo Dam Road. Dirt from the excavation has been piled high around the fire station, making the firehouse a natural catchall for rain water.

Also, firemen said, one ditch filled up with water and overflowed into the fire station.

Firemen were hard at work Sunday night and Monday clearing the water out of the station—additional drainage ditches had to be bulldozed—and cleaning up the mess.

With the station restored to apple-pie order again Monday, firemen breathed easy until Wednesday's rains when the station was again deluged with more than three feet of water.

Firemen once again cleared the water out of the station and put the headquarters back in shape but the toll from the two floodings was expected to run high. Though damage is unestimated pending assessments from contractors, the waters were reported to have damaged most of the furnishings, the furnace, heaters, generators, tools and other equipment.

Cub Pack 211 Forms New Den

On January 17, Cub Scout Pack 211 met at the Orinda School for their monthly meeting. A new den was formed consisting of Bryan Cantrell, Bobby Markstein, Terry Rawson, Robert Grundel, Buzzy Ward and Tom Beckett. These boys also received the Bob Cat Badge Award on this same evening.

Other awards of the evening were the Bear Award given to James Armstrong, Roger Burton, Michael Dorn, Steve Anderson, Robert Hussey, Jimmy James, Doug DeCosta, Paul Franklin and Kit Renwick.

The Silver Arrow on the Bear Award was given to Geoff Rieser. Wolf awards were given to Cliff Campbell, Jim Hubbard, Allen Wolfenden, Brian Tibbitts, Buddy Groh, Jack Kessler, Bruce Burton and Rex Scatena. Gold Arrows on Wolf Awards were given to Kent Dickinson and Don Moore. A Silver Arrow Award on the Wolf Badge was given to Michael Dorn. Lion Badges were given to Geoff Anderson, Bill Sutfilte and Tommy Carlisle, and Gold awards on the Lion Badge were given to Geoff Anderson and Tommy Carlisle, as well as Silver Awards on the Lion Badges to Bob Riddell and Doug Fastabend.

The meeting was held under the auspices of Dr. C. Fredrick Burton, Assistant Cub Master, in the absence of Mrs. Jack Rieser. Plans were made for the February meeting which will be a father and son banquet, an event enjoyed by fathers and sons last year at this time.

Coming events are fathers' month in which the Pinewood Derby will again be held.

Public Okays Fifty Cent Hike In School Tax

A Monday night Lafayette public meeting in the Acalanes library, called to hear the reasons for the Acalanes High School District's request for a fifty cent increase in the tax limit, has endorsed the proposal.

In describing the tax limit request set for balloting February 25, trustees emphasized that the basic factor behind the tax limit proposal is "enrollment growth—the war babies are reaching high school."

Acalanes Superintendent Neil M. Parsons explained that the current rate of $1.75 is at the $1.75 limit set four years ago. With about 500 additional pupils per year coming in the future, we cannot educate more students each year under a limit that just pays for today's enrollment.

Trustee William Lee pointed out that the "additional tax on his on his own home with about $20,000 market value, at the most if the full new limit were imposed, would be less than two dollars—actually $1.52 a month more."

Lee stated that, "Since we expect to keep the rate below the new limit for as long as possible, the initial rate on my own home, as an example, would be around 30c a month more than it is now."

Board member Alice McBride declared that the alternative to meeting the costs of education increasing enrollments is to lower educational standards: more pupils per teacher; insufficient classroom and instructional facilities; lower paid, less competent teachers.

Parents of high and elementary school children must realize that insufficient financing means less than an adequate standard of education for our children at a time when individual success and a national crisis demand the most of education," Mrs. McBride observed.

In a statement from the floor, Roy Mangini of Lafayette, declared, "If parents are aware of the information presented here tonight, and are as interested in their kids' education as I am in mine, they had better be sure they get out and support this issue at the polls."

Mangini encouraged trustees, "to see that a campaign is conducted that will present the facts to every parent in the community. When they know the score, they'll approve the limit."

In answer to a query on comparative taxes for schools in other areas by John Kennedy of the Acalanes Taxpayers Association, an affiliation of the County Taxpayers Association, trustee William B. Freeman explained that, "areas with more industrial tax wealth such as Pittsburg or San Francisco may have as much as $15,000 to $18,000 in property wealth behind each pupil as compared with the Acalanes District area's $6,200 per pupil. This means that in order to live in a residential area like our own we must make up the difference that an industrial tax base would bring."

Freeman pointed out that "with what some of these richer districts in the state may spend on the construction of one facility alone, like an auditorium, we have—through economies—built

Boy Gets Help From Volunteers

A big job for the Volunteer Bureau of Contra Costa County recently was this: "Get a 10 year old boy into University of California Hospital daily for an absolutely essential therapy."

"Do this for a six weeks period. The mother is exhausted from her efforts to take him every day—having the added care of a small baby and a father who works."

The solution to this problem involved the Bureau in hours of phoning and involved many members of the community in special and elaborate arrangements and adjustments, said Mrs. F. C. Sterling Jr.

The Volunteer driver must plan to have a car and to be away from her home from 1:30 until 6:30.

The 20 volunteers who did the job came from near (just around the corner from the patient) and as far away as Danville.

One driver took her own small baby when baby sitting arrangements failed; one family waited dinner for the driver to return; one driver had a 7 p.m. class—which she just made—and one had a seriously ill father whom she left for the afternoon.

The job was finished successfully.

The Volunteer Bureau at 2030 North Main Street, Walnut Creek, again needs drivers for the Red Cross Motor Corps, or the Lynn School and for the American Cancer Society, said Mrs. Sterling. Anyone who will spare some time and who likes to drive, may call the Volunteer Bureau.

Airmen Hear Safety Talk

The "180° Life Saver Course", heralded and promoted by the Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association was the subject of Bill Drum's talk before the Diablo Airmen's Association meeting, Thursday.

Drum, a member of the California Aeronautics Commission, was sent by the State to the University of Illinois to participate in the 180° program, and he is now the State Instructor for this program. Drum also showed movies illustrating the turn and general aviation safety.

almost an entire high school plant. Our education costs per pupil have also consistently been either the lowest or among the lowest for high school districts in the county."

Freeman cited that "fact that the Acalanes District's construction program has warranted national attention for its economic, functional design."

He termed the 50c tax limit proposal "a very moderate, comprehensible facing local secondary education."

The Lafayette public meeting followed an invitation by trustees to the public and one hundred twenty-five letters to community organization to attend one of three such meetings on the tax proposal. The second meeting was held Wednesday at Las Lomas, Walnut Creek; the third is planned for Monday, 8:00 p.m. at Miramonte High in Orinda.

Patterson Announces He'll Run for W. C. Judgeship

Vernon Patterson, prominent Lafayette attorney, announced this week that he will be a candidate for the office of judge of the Walnut Creek Judicial District.

"Any judgeship is a position of grave responsibility and honor," he said. "Considering my years of practice in this area and my general legal background, I believe I am well qualified to serve the community."

"If, as many people think, the Walnut Creek Judicial District Court may soon become a municipal court, I have all the requirements for being the judge of such a court, as well as being qualified to be justice of the peace, the present status of the judgeship."

"PATTERSON, 45, lives at 1099 Magnolia Lane, Lafayette, with his wife, Dorothy, and their three children—Vernon Jr., 12; Anne, 9, and Rhoebe, 4. His law office is at 3557 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Patterson was Lafayette's first full-time attorney. He came to Lafayette in 1948. He has been in private law practice since 1937

Road Hogs Face CHP's Attention

"Drivers who persist in driving in the wrong lane on multi-lane highways, and those who poke along in traffic on two-lane roads can expect strict enforcement action by the California Highway Patrol."

This statement was made today by Captain Russell R. Magill of the Contra Costa Office of the Patrol.

"Our enforcement action against such driving errors is continuing unabated," stated Magill. "Drivers on multi-lane highways should keep in mind the law requires them to drive in the right-hand lane except when overtaking and passing another vehicle or preparing to make a left turn."

"The law also requires drivers to move with the normal speed of traffic and not at such a speed as to impede or block the normal flow of traffic," the captain said. "These laws are easily understood and should elicit continued obedience."

"Anyone desiring more information on this and other pertinent traffic laws is invited to stop by the Patrol office at Arnold Industrial Highway and Highway 21, Martinez," he concluded. "We will be glad to answer questions on any phase of driving or traffic rules."

"We also have pamphlets on driving rules which may help," he said.

Catholic Social Services Expand

Establishment of an agency of Catholic Social Service in the Walnut Creek-Concord area, to meet needs resulting from the unprecedented growth of Central and Eastern Contra Costa county, was authorized today by Most Reverend John J. Mitty, D.D., Archbishop of San Francisco. This follows requests and petitions from hundreds of business, professional and community leaders during the last two years.

This first voluntary professional counseling activity in Central and Eastern Contra Costa county is expected to be in operation February 1. Several locations for its offices are under study.

Father John McCracken, M.S., W., Director of Catholic Social Service in West Contra Costa and Solano counties, will be initially in charge. The professionally trained staff will include Miss Elizabeth Geiser, M.S.W., a caseworker and executive secretary, and George C. Brown, M.D., as psychiatric consultant.

To comply with requests of area leaders, this new agency initially will specialize in counseling on children's problems and on family relationship problems.

"Contra Costa county's population grew from 298,984 in 1950 to 358,200 last year, with a prediction of 390,000 in 1960," Archbishop Mitty stated, in authorizing the new agency. "The greatest growth has been in the central and eastern areas, where present population is triple that of 1950."

Sees Recession End

The 1957-58 recession will come to an end within the next 3 to 6 months, according to Frederick C. Kracke, Executive Vice President of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, Inc., who is attending the National Association of Home Builders' convention in Chicago.

Kracke reported from Chicago that the leading economists of the County had advised the home builders that the up-trend would come between April and July, 1958.

CARNAGE RESULTED when an out-of-control 1957 car crashed through the front plate glass of Lafayette Laundromat at 994 Hough Avenue, at 1:45 a.m., January 21. Piloted by Harry Dunham, 40, of St. Mary's Road, Lafayette, it stopped only after smashing into three dryers and six washing machines, according to CHP officers. They cited Dunham for not having a driver's license. They also cited Ernest LaMatta of Dyer Drive Lafayette, for interfering with the driver. Dunham said that LaMatta got into the car while objecting to his offer to take Mrs. LaMatta home from a local cocktail lounge.

Local Dimes March Now; Blakesley Again Chairman

Larry Blakesley has again been named Lafayette chairman for the March of Dimes campaign for funds with which to fight polio. Quota for the Lafayette area is $5000, Blakesley announced this week.

ROBERT J. Stirling is treasurer of the local drive. Esther Marchant is chairman of the annual Mothers' March on Polio, which will be conducted tonight and will climax the month-long campaign for funds.

"KEEP YOUR porch-light lit tonight, reminds Mrs. Marchant. "Starting at 7 o'clock women volunteers will canvass Lafayette, ringing doorbells and asking for financial contributions."

"We particularly need volunteers for the Mothers' March," Blakesley said. "Women who can volunteer for this activity should call me at either AT 4-154 or YE 5-1059."

IN CONTRA COSTA County since 1938 we have given financial aid to 1350 polio cases, to the extent of a total of $1,500,000 from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis," Blakesley said.

"In 1958 we will have to spend about $96,000 for care of those who have already been stricken—those who contracted the disease before the Salk vaccine was available."

Patient - aid for the already stricken cases takes first place. These people cannot be forsaken or abandoned."

Whoosh!--'Log' Turns Out to Be Navy Signal

An apparently cheery fire was burning in the fireplace in the home of Mrs. Sarah C. Jones, 835 Juanita Drive, at dinner time recently—when suddenly a loud sizzling emanated from the fire, an acid, sulphurous odor filled the air, and an intense white light (something like that of old-fashioned Fourth of July fireworks) sizzled and sputtered fiercely.

Mrs. Jones and her daughter, Mrs. James Bailey of 2735 Acacia Drive, who was visiting her, sloshed water onto the fire, from a teakettle and other containers, but the white light flared brighter and the sputtering and the sharp odor increased.

Mrs. Bailey phoned the Lafayette Fire Department. When they arrived the unusual flare was pretty well under control. Chief object of suspicion was what appeared to be a log, the source of all the excitement.

The firemen removed it. The next day Fire Marshal Robert Winkel phoned the Naval Magazine at Port Chicago. A representative of that station came to Lafayette, examined the object and identified it as an abandoned Navy boat light signal, containing magnesium. He took it with him back to Port Chicago.

The object had been picked up Sunday, along with driftwood and logs, by another daughter of Mrs. Jones, Miss Mary Ellen Jones of Berkeley, at a San Francisco beach. Miss Jones brought these to her mother that day; she imagined the Navy boat light signal to be one of the logs, and so did Mrs. Jones—even though it was slate - gray in color and was weighted with metal at one end.

Now they know better. Their advice, and that of Winkel and Fire Chief Shirley Peakes, is: Before you drift along with driftwood, make sure it's not packing a magnesium wallop.

Dons Volunteer For More Work

Acalanes senior problems students interested in social studies are abetting their regular daily class sessions attending evening seminars on contemporary social problems.

Students in the evening seminars receive no grade for their activity. "They do it out of intellectual curiosity," according to James Nelson and Robert Wilde, Acalanes senior problems instructors who head the evening study group.

"Because of the wide range of academic ability in regular classes and the limited time available to really pursue a subject in depth, students with an above average interest in social sciences have joined together to probe more deeply into their studies," instructor Nelson explained.

According to teacher Robert Wilde, the "course has no required format or regulated meeting dates. We agree on a problem, research it, write down our ideas and findings and then sit around together to evaluate what we have."

Acalanes principal Stanley Walgren disclosed that social studies evening seminar is one of three learning activities conducted on a "no grade, activity outside of regular school basis," at Acalanes.

Students with special interests are also encouraged to attend activities in science or foreign language.

Baldwin Raps Pay Television

"Pay television would bar the workman from receiving the best programs on television, Congressman John Baldwin stated this week in testifying before the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee of the House of Representatives.

Baldwin, representing the sixth District of California, which includes Contra Costa and Solano Counties, stated, "I represent a workingman's district. The average workingman has a hard enough time making ends meet. It is all he can do to purchase a television set itself. The granting of pay television permits would simply bar to such a workingman the opportunity to see the best programs on television."

Eight Youths Admit Series Of Burglaries

Eight youngsters, who used a police radio and converted rifle into machine gun like weapons, have been apprehended by the Contra Costa Sheriff's Department to end a six month burglary spree.

Detective Bud Hobert, of the central county station said the eight have admitted participating in about 20 break-ins in schools, homes and businesses in which "the loot taken may total some $2000."

Hobert said Anson Averell, 20, of Diablo, adjusted ear radios to receive calls from pursuing police. Manufactured skeleton keys and converted .22 and .30 caliber rifles to rapid fire operation.

Hobert said there was no evidence the "machine guns" were carried on the burglaries but there were a number of complaints of machine gun firing in the hills near here.

Averell, charged with petty theft, will be sentenced in Danville Justice Court.

Also arrested and charged with burglary or petty theft were Darrell Shakeshaft, 17, of 1598 Huster Road, Pleasant Hill; and Lance D. Frazier, 18, of 898 Diablo Road; Paul W. Estenson, 17, of San Ramon Highway; Daniel T. Burbeck, 18, of 589 Bobbie Lane and William F. Yost, 18, of 2499 Lunda Drive, all of Danville.

Yost and Burbeck have been sentenced to 120 days in jail and placed on one year probation and ordered to return to court in June for sentence. Charges are still pending against the others.

Bar Association Disavows Independent Attorneys'

The Central Contra Costa Bar Association, at its regular meeting at the Hotel El Nido Rancho Tuesday noted misleading information contained in a recent newspaper release by self-styled "Independent Attorneys' Committee," as to its search for a qualified candidate for the office of Judge of the Walnut Creek Judicial District in the elections to be held June 3.

The Central Contra Costa Bar Association, composed of 36 active members maintaining offices within the Walnut Creek and Concord Judicial Districts, unanimously concluded that the public should be made aware of the following facts:

1. That in fact no member of the self-styled "Independent Attorneys' Committee" is a local attorney who regularly maintains an office for the practice of law in the Walnut Creek Judicial District.

2. That in fact the recognized and duly accredited association of attorneys within the Walnut Creek Judicial District is the Central Contra Costa Bar Association. No member of the self-styled "Independent Attorneys' Committee" is a member of the Central Contra Costa Bar Association. The views expressed in the recent news release as to seeking further for a qualified candidate are not representative of the views of the accredited association of local attorneys.

3. The Central-Contra Costa Bar Association neither makes nor contemplates making a recommendation or endorsement of any individual candidate for this judicial office.

4. The Central Contra Costa Bar Association deems the announced candidates who are members of the association and who not only reside in the Walnut Creek Judicial District but also maintain their offices in the Walnut Creek Judicial District, qualified to seek the judicial position to be open upon the retirement of the present judge, Clifford Thomson.

The members of the Central Contra Costa Bar Association who have recently announced their intention to seek the position are Betsy Fitzgerald, George V. Walker, John R. Forde Jr., and Frederick C. Kracke.

School Band To Perform Monday Evening

Over 500 student musicians, representing every elementary school in the Mt. Diablo Unified School District, will participate in a Music Festival which will be presented on Monday, in the Pleasant Hill High School gymnasium, according to James Arnold, co-ordinator of music.

These young musicians from grades four through six have been organized in two different groups: an elementary orchestra of 160 players, and an elementary band numbering 340. They have been rehearsing the music for this festival for several weeks under the guidance of their various music teachers. On Saturday morning, the two groups will hold their only full rehearsal; and on Monday night, both will be heard in the Festival Concert in the Pleasant Hill High Gymnasium.

Although twelve different teachers have been working on this project for sometime, the actual conductors of the two groups performing in the concert will be Tom Sprague conducting the elementary orchestra, and Don Wilson the elementary band.

The festival will begin at 8 p.m., and will be open to the public. There will be no admission charge.

Bypass Will Be Topic at Annual Highway Meeting

Description of construction of the Walnut Creek Bypass will be the topic of two speakers at the annual meeting of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation in Walnut Creek at 8 p.m. next Thursday at Las Lomas High School.

Assistant District Engineer Haig Avanian of the State Division of Highways, District IV, who is in charge of construction of the bypass, will explain the various stages of construction. He will be assisted in his presentation by Chief Engineer Robert Kenning of the contracting firm of Charles L. Harney Company, engaged in construction of the project.

They will outline building of the overpasses, location of detours, handling of traffic at the work progresses and how traffic will be routed after completion.

Elliot Hartman of Lafayette, chairman of the federation, stated that, as in the past when open meetings were held to explain the construction of the Orinda Interchange Pass and Lafayette Bypass, the meeting will be open to those interested in this freeway development. They receive a description of phases of the project which are of especial interest to them, Hartman said.

He also extended an invitation to those interested in county road developments and other state highway needs for the future, stating they are welcome to attend and participate in plans for the coming year.

Federation officers and directors for the new year will be elected at the meeting. A report of federation activities during 1957 will be given.

Hadassah Will See Film-Strip

A special evening for Diablo Valley Chapter of Hadassah is planned for Saturday, February 3, 8 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Myron Riskin, 92 Davis Road, Orinda, when Hazel Greenwald will show her pictures of the life and plight of the Jews in North Africa.

Hazel Greenwald of New York City, national films chairman of Hadassah and a national board member for 23 years, has been directly responsible for the initiation and production of the many slides and films which have effectively promoted Hadassah and its work throughout the country. She has most recently followed through, from Morocco and India, the movement of Youth Aliyah children to Israel and their integration into permanent settlements there. Her film-strip, "Shulamith Finds Tomorrow," evolved from her Moroccan trip last year, earned her an "Oscar" from the American Film Assembly in New York.

Hazel Greenwald's theatrical background, which began at the age of 4, stands her in good stead in her present work. She has worked with small theater groups in New York City.

The evening is open to anyone interested in seeing the films.

"HOM is a unique new service organization which brings to the housing industry the tried and successful trade-in methods of the automobile and major appliance industries.

"HOM, for the first time in history, will make it possible to trade in one house for another, across the street or across the country—quickly, easily and with absolute protection for the home owner, realtor and builder."

The basis of HOM's program, Richardson told the NAHB session, is the standard FHA appraisal and the integrity of America's largest title insurance companies.

Under HOM's program, Richardson explained, "Mr. Jones" will be guaranteed the FHA appraisal on his house in Chicago, plus or minus carefully determined immediate market conditions, and less standard real estate charges and HOM's three per cent service charge.

"Mr. Jones" is given his HOM Guarantee Certificate by the title company participating in HOM, and it is used as a "good-as-gold" down payment on his new home in Lafayette.

Baldwin Wins Work Rating

Congressman John F. Baldwin, representing California's Sixth District, has received a figurative "A" on his report card from a California rating agency.

The California Congressional Recognition Project, founded by a group of private citizens, termed Congressman Baldwin's work in the U. S. Congress, where he represents Contra Costa and Solano counties "very effective."

The report stated that the Sixth District "presents its representatives in Congress with a multitude of problems involving various aspects of Federal activity. These include channel and levee improvement on the lower San Joaquin river, flood control, harbor development, irrigation installations, shipyard activities and land acquisitions by the armed forces.

A trick in handling foil-wrapped vegetables while camping, is to roll them up and to twist the foil ends. The little handles thus made help in turning and moving the food.

Freeway Situation Is Serious; Action Needed!

We are faced with a serious situation in Central Contra Costa County, and nobody is more aware of it than the thousands of commuters who travel Mt. Diablo Boulevard each morning and evening.

This situation is costing our residents an untold amount of money, and it may possibly cost some lives before it is corrected.

The money is yours, if you use this highway, and the life might be yours, too.

What is the situation we have in mind?

It is the congestion existing between the end of the Lafayette bypass and the Orinda interchange.

What causes this situation? It is simple. There are divided freeway lanes leading into the bottleneck from Lafayette and three lanes from the Orinda interchange to the tunnel. Traffic must funnel from freeway status to two lanes, and then back to three lanes again.

IF YOU DON'T believe this is a dangerous situation, just drive it some morning or evening.

Thousands of commuters — and housewives taking their youngsters to school, or shopping — do, and they know the seriousness of the problem.

Why is it costing money? Because traffic is slowed, time is wasted, and fenders are bent. All of these are expensive — and we pay the bills.

Dangerous? It certainly is, and it is bound to be whenever this situation exists.

AND IT IS A STRANGE situation. We have excellent to ample freeway on both sides of this section, which goes right over Charles Hill, but the one bottleneck reduces the efficiency of the freeway by a tremendous percentage.

The Sun and others asked the State Division of Highways to rectify the situation last summer. The answer was that the proposed interchange at Happy Valley and the freeway would probably be started soon and it would be a waste of funds to create an "emergency" third lane, as was recently done between the Orinda interchange and the tunnel.

But there were no funds for the work in this year's budget. At the earliest, now, funds couldn't be appropriated for the final job until next year, and construction probably wouldn't be forthcoming until 1960 or 1961.

Can you imagine the situation by then?

Therefore, it is time for action — immediate action — and it appears evident that we are not going to get it unless we fight for it.

There is a good deal that you can do to rectify this situation.

Write a letter, or a post card, or a note—anything, just to get your message across, to Mr. C. M. Gilliss, Director, California Department of Public Works, Public Works Building, 1120 N Street, Sacramento 5, Calif.

And send a carbon, or duplicate to B. W. Booker, Assistant State Highway Engineer, Division of Highways, 150 Oak Street, San Francisco 5, Calif.

And if you haven't run out of energy, words and paper, send another copy to your Board of Supervisors, Contra Costa County, Martinez, Calif., which did not even mention this highway in their recommendations last year.

If each one of us who is concerned would do this, we would be bound to get some action. The squeaking hinge gets the oil.

THERE IS ONE MORE thing. Each group which is interested in the welfare and betterment of this section of the county should do the same thing. This includes the Diablo Highway Federation, the Contra Costa Commuters Association and every one of the hundreds of homeowners groups and improvement associations.

The situation is serious, and it will get worse before even emergency measures can be taken.

How about doing your part today?

Jaycees -- Hats Off!

Our congratulations go to the local Junior Chambers of Commerce.

Each has proved, once again, that it is an active and able organization—one that is truly dedicated to the welfare of the community in which it exists.

Last week was National Junior Chamber of Commerce Week, and as a result there were banquets and celebrations throughout the area.

Each junior chamber has selected an outstanding young man from its community to honor with the recognition of the Distinguished Service Award.

In addition, the value of the Jaycees to the local communities was emphatically brought home by having two men from our area among the five outstanding young men of California—Tom Clarke of the Walnut Creek Area Junior Chamber of Commerce and L. Jack Block of Orinda.

In Lafayette, Orinda, Pleasant Hill and Walnut Creek the Junior Chambers of Commerce are constantly active, looking for projects which will be of benefit to the community.

Many times, these projects are not brought before the community eye—they are done quietly and sincerely for the good of the area.

Therefore we take this opportunity to publicly salute the Junior Chambers of Commerce in our area.

They deserve our thanks.

The Staff Corner

Into the Ditch -- And Out

By NORMAN COLBY

"I'd better not come in," I said, unable to sound cheerful, as Dave Mattson of 15 North Pleasant Hill Road, peered out at me through his front door screen.

"But would you make a phone call for me?"

He stared at my shoes which were heavily caked with black mud. My once crisp flannel trousers were stained black almost to the knees.

After another quick glance at my soaked, muddy, blotched shirt and streaming face, he opened the door and motioned me to the phone, located near the dining room table where his family was finishing dinner. I muttered a few apologies, walking tip-toe.

"That's all right, Mr. Colby. It's not your fault," Patti Rossi, our intended baby sitter of last Saturday night, said sympathetically, on the other end of the line.

"This is a dirty trick to play on you, Patti."

"That's okay, you couldn't help it."

Turning back to Dave Mattson and his family, I thought of my wife, Fran, as I last saw her at home—putting the final touches on her blue-green lace dress and deciding which earrings would be the best for The Sun Newspaper Junior Chamber of Commerce banquet. There was a sparkle in her eye, and she was asking who would be there, and what tidbits of gossip might develop. She looked wonderful.

Dave Mattson said: "That's a tough break. Let me drive you home. Maybe we can get your car out."

The desire to go back to that Boyd Road ditch and somehow by sheer effort of will—tug, pull or "gun" that car out of the ditch seized me. But without a home phone I had to let Fran know, quickly.

At this moment, with baby son tucked in bed, she was probably making last minute adjustments of make-up, and accessories. She didn't know that tonight would be just another night at home—with an ill-tempered husband, in addition.

Dave Mattson burned rubber on his '56 station wagon, but the rope broke twice, and we gave up. It was raining even harder by then, and he was pretty wet, despite a jacket.

"Drop by tomorrow, and we can give it another try," Dave said. I nodded gratefully.

I was so angry at myself for pulling off to the side of Boyd Road, to get my directions to the baby-sitters house straight, that I almost hoped that Fran would chew me out. But she only changed attire, and sat down to idly speculate what was happening at the dinner. Did anybody goof on introductions? We wondered.

The next day, neighbor Jim Dauber and I after two hours of perspiring got the old Plymouth out. A special problem was a private fence, which she had nuzzled as the tires spun futilely.

The owner of the adjacent home and the fence appeared momentarily and helpfully commented that not long ago a woman drove through the fence, and it cost her $67.

Without Jim's help (to be more correct, I helped him) I'd still be standing in 10 inches of muck. I persuaded my benefactor to have a beer in our home, and we traded stories, while wives cooked dinners in respective kitchens.

But it was a disturbing weekend. Everything that was to have gone so right turned out so wrong. A complete washout?

Well, not quite. Sunday night I started a novel I'd been trying to sit down for months. I felt stimulated, for some reason.

In fact, I felt more alive than I had for months. My mind seemed eager to take on something new, outside of the daily routine. My car was out of the ditch, and my thoughts had been lifted, temporarily, at least, out of their groove.

Enough so, in fact, that I even stopped to consider what effort it must have taken for Fran to say, "Oh, well," after waiting throughout the day for an hour on the town which never arrived.

Pending's Mastodonic Fete Continues in Chevy City

By Pat Pending

THE SCENE: The Short Stem saloon, Chevrolet City.

WHO'S THERE: Artie Choke, Heroin (the heroine) Par Snip, Mutt Dullen, Shy Anne, Chess Turr, the villain (unknown) and assorted tumbleweeds.

WHAT'S GOIN' ON?: We don't know. We only know that the villain doesn't like Norway. He claims that, if it wasn't for Norway, Sweden would be on the North Sea!

Last week we wanted a cast. This week we have one. Artie Choke is wearing it on his head. He was buffere around in Headstone Territory and got involved in some skullduggery and has a splitting headache! Artie is still fast on the draw and has a lot of pull. He used to work in a dairy until latent prints began to show up and Joe got him fired Friday! Joe carries a badge and likes to badger people.

ANYWAY, MUTT DULLEN goes through the swinging doors (they'd been hanged) of the Short Stem saloon and looks down the street. (He was up very late last night — though he usually sleeps in Channel Number 5 like Marilyn — and his eyelids are heavy!) Otherwise, he would look UP the street! Eyes have always bothered Mutt because he's lazy and hates to do his own looking. He used to have a private eye working for him but he kept it well hidden because he had the same problem as Contra Costa county teachers: too many pupils!

Here's what Mutt sees:

Coming UP the street (don't forget, Mutt's looking down) is Wild Bill Hiccup, "Why 'at urp?" the Loan Arranger, my friend flicker (a carry over from the silent days) Twenty-Two (of larger calibre than Twenty-One) Rinty, Life Ends at 90 — MPH, A-A-A-AND FLUORIDATION eads by a tooth!

MUTT is in real trouble and he can't call on Shy Anne for help. Artie Choke is under the influence of Heroin and Par Snip is under the influence (which is a heck of a place to be sometimes!).

Chess Turr is having his problems (he's lost his limp and limps are hard to find these days) so he can't help Mr. Dullen and Doc is still practising medicine and is cutting up in surgery with his nurse, Anise Thetie — in fact, he has her in stitches!

HOW CAN MUTT maintain law and order in Chevrolet City with all these critturs on the dodge? Should he call on the D. A.; the Planning Commission; the Recorder; the Housing Authority; or the California Water Company? He thinks that, maybe, the best bet is the Water Company 'cause they seem to have ways of keeping the citizenry under control.

He attempts to call them (he's never heard of Dial because water has been so expensive that he hasn't had a bath in months). He's using a French phone and he can't speak French! The operator answers. She's a woman. This puzzles Mutt.

"How come?" he says, "there's no men telephone operators?" And the brutal answer comes back: "Because this is the belle system, stupid!"

IN THE MEANTIME (we're off daylight saving) all these characters are still coming UP the street — and the street just can't take it! It's like Contra Costa streets.

Mutt knows that Wild Bill Hiccup is dangerous and just might unmask the Loan Arranger and Giannini wouldn't like that! His only hope is that Rinty isn't dog tired . . .

Letters to The Editor

RAY TAYLOR

Dear Editor:

With interest I read your report of our county representative, Ray Taylor, relinquishing the gavel of the board.

It's obvious he's done a great job during the past year, as he happily pointed out to your Sun reporter.

I would like to ask what has been done under his 'Leadership' about the following:

1. Supervisor action, let alone discussion, on the office of record-er problem;

2. Supervisor action, let alone discussion, on instructions to D. A. Collins to initiate action re the Cunningham ension;

3. Support of Planning Commission recommendations regarding sub-divisor zoning requests which negate present zoning ordinances.

Otherwise — he's done a great job as HE SAW FIT.

Incidentally, your editorial on traffic on the east side of Charles Hill was most commendable.

Improvements you suggest would cut our car pool travel time from 35 to 30 minutes. We leave Acalanes High at 6:50 a.m. average, and arrive at our SF parking lot under the First Street ramp at 7:25 average.

Could be the commuter problem is greater for those who go to work at 8:30, but we have no complaint. I suspect that many of the complainers are those who sleep late!

SERVICE

DEAR EDITOR:

It was a pleasure to have served on the Sun Man of the Year committee in Walnut Creek.

The resulting tribute to a deserving community leader is but another one of the many fine civic-minded activities that have been Sun inspired.

Both Jim and I wish to thank you most sincerely for making the evening (award banquet) such an enjoyable one.

TAXES

DEAR EDITOR:

I notice that several school districts are beginning plans for elections to increase the maximum tax rate permitted.

I know that the normal publicity gives the information on increased enrollments, increased costs of constructions, higher salaries for teachers. However, when you talk about the tax rate you are dealing with the relationship between an operating budget and the assessed value of property in the district.

Unfortunately, not all assessed property is taxable—and in most of the local school districts I think that you will find the largest exemption is the $1,000 exemption allowed to veterans.

In Contra Costa County for 1956 (most recent data released by State Board of Equalization) there were roughly 30,000 exemptions with $30 million of property exempt. With an average tax rate of roughly $2 for the county this means a loss in tax revenue of about $2,700,000.

UNFORTUNATELY, this tax loss tends to concentrate in the school districts that cover predominantly residential areas.

It seems to me that the time has come to review the entire question of a special exemption on property taxes. A $1,000 exemption means a tax savings of $20 per year. In a matter of 10 years a California veteran (those who don't own property never get this benefit) will save $900 in taxes—more than any state paid as a bonus. If the typical veteran first bought a home when he was 30 and lived to 65 his tax savings would approximate $3,000.

Is this what was intended? Or was the purpose of a veterans exemption to assist veterans to get established after release from service as was true of the G. I. Bill and other benefits?

Frankly, I would like to hear someone defend the California exemption on grounds other than the old phony that "our boys who defended the country deserve the best of everything." Frankly, most of "our boys" were ordered in to service, not doing it voluntarily.

I UNDERSTAND that many of our elected representatives consider this issue one that is too hot to handle—and that this is the reason that the law has remained unchanged for so many years.

I would suggest that a reasonable compromise, assuming that the people in the state wanted to continue this form of recognition of service, would be to allow a veteran to claim the exemption for 10 years. If the law was changed today it would only be fair to allow everyone (regardless of how long they have drawn it to date) to draw it another 10 years.

BUT THEN LET US GET RID OF THIS DRAIN ON THE SCHOOLS. DISTRICTS, ETC THAT ARE REQUESTED TO PROVIDE SERVICE TO THE VETERAN.

Bob Kahn

P.S. Before a gang heads this way to silence me, please mention that I am a veteran. I served in WW II and was recalled during Korea.

CHURCH vs. STATE

DEAR EDITOR:

So the Athiests' sensibilities are offended because Christmas plays are performed in our schools! Because some of these people do wish their children "exposed" to "this sort of thing," our children may well be denied the pleasure of the traditional Christmas plays.

These people are going about their protesting in the right way too — quoting legal decisions regarding the separation of church and state.

If this move is successful — watch the next ones.

What about the inscription on our coins — "In God we trust?"

This also gives great pain to these minorities.

We shouldn't discriminate against them, though.

We should at least mint separate coins for them, minus the offensive inscription. And then there is the Oath of Allegiance — that, too, is painful. And so on.

Anonpros the protest against the Christmas programs, Superintendent Tavis Dent of the Mt. Diablo Unified School District, said, "Maybe we should take a hard look to see if something isn't going on behind the scenes in our land." Maybe we should do just that.

I suggest Mr. Dent has hit the proverbial nail on the well-known head.

MILDRED SPENCER GRAGG Ed's note: A Pleasant Hill resident recently complained to the Mt. Diablo Unified School District Board of Trustees of Christmas plays in the Pleasant Hill schools of the District. The story was carried in the Walnut Creek Sun and the Pleasant Hill Sun, but not the Lafayette Sun and the Orinda Sun, since the latter two communities are not affected by the Mt. Diablo District.

YMCA Heads Attend Meet

East Contra Costa YMCA Chairman Roy Condeff, Concord Committee Chairman Bud Stout, and a Concord committee member, Ken Barden, attended the Pacific Southwest Area conference at Santa Barbara recently. Condeff described the affair as a training conference for potential officers of YMCA's. The recent independence of the local branch has created openings for new officers.

Under The Sun

Who Will Run for What? Who Will Run for D. A.?

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Who is going to run for what?

Yes, politics is in the air. In fact, it's all over the place. And today "they" were all over my office. It must have been politicians' day at The Sun, for I spent five and one-half hours talking to three men who plan to run for office. Yesterday another candidate popped in and Saturday night late I spent time chatting with another.

"Hey, boss, what are you trying to do? Make yourself important?"

I might have known it. It being Snoopy, the office cat. Just for that, Snoopy, out you go. Out of the office until I finish writing this masterpiece.

That question again . . .

Now . . . before I was so rudely interrupted . . .

Who is going to run for what office?

Ron Orin, Concord chief of police, will announce his candidacy for sheriff in about two weeks. He is the strongest man to oppose incumbent Sheriff Harry Brown. Sheriff Inspector Ray Stoeffels has been campaigning for some time, as has Sgt. Walt Young. I predict the battle will be between Orin and Brown.

Assembly? Who will take Don Doyle's place in Sacramento?

On the Republican ticket, Sam Conti, Pittsburg attorney, has already announced. Sam got his feet wet in the last supervisory race against Bud Buchanan and lost by about 800 votes. He is young, personable, energetic and has the nod of the GOP wheels around here.

What about Ted Counter?

Haven't heard of any other Republican candidate, except the rumor that Ted Counter, former mayor and retiring Walnut Creek councilman, may toss his hat into the GOP ring.

When I finished writing the last sentence, I picked up the phone and called Ted and asked him straight out.

Ted answered that he didn't know.

I pumped him for a few minutes and am now convinced that, while he is considering it, he really hasn't made up his mind. He has announced he is not going to run for supervisor against Ray Taylor and is not up for reelection to the Council.

Demo candidate for Assembly?

Who will the Democrats run for assembly?

Saturday the Democrats will hold their pre-primary convention in Martinez. This is a joint committee of the County Democratic Central Committee and the County Federation of Democratic Clubs. They will endorse candidates for partisan offices. (I disapprove of pre-primary endorsements by Democrats or Republicans—but that is another story.)

Now back to the question—Who will run on the Democratic ticket for assembly?

Jerome Waldie will be the candidate. He is a young, sincere, affable attorney from Antioch. He's a cinch to get the party endorsement and has already started the campaign. Retiring County Superintendent of Schools B. O. Wilson has been rumored as a Demo candidate but today two different sources said he is not in the race. I just called Wilson but he was not in.

The contest for Congress

For Congress? Of course, John Baldwin will run. He will be very, very tough to beat. EXCEPT if there is a countywide and nationwide Democratic landslide — and that is possible this year.

No. 1 Democrat for the post at Saturday's convention is Howard H. Jewel, Orinda resident, and Oakland attorney with a big-name firm. I don't know anything about Jewel but he looks like he has the party nomination sewed up.

Other Demos whose names will be before the convention Saturday for congressmen are Ira Gunn, former Walnut Creek city manager; Craig Randall, Pleasant Hill resident and Berkeley attorney; and John Sheridan, Richmond city councilman and labor leader. I read somewhere that Sheridan has withdrawn his name. Jewel may be a formidable candidate.

D.A. Collins will run again

District Attorney? Incumbent Francis Collins will run again. He has been opposed for the past several elections—and may walk in again.

This would be a crime!

The D.A.'s office is probably the worst spot in our county government. Collins is not doing a good job. No, I'll reward that—he is doing a terrible job. His law enforcement is scandalous. His private practice and that of his deputies are infamous throughout the state. This is costing you and other taxpayers thousands upon thousands of dollars each year.

The link between the district attorney's office and the law office of Carlson, Collins, Gordon and Bold is flaunted throughout the county.

Sentences are reduced and criminals freed or almost freed because—well, for many reasons that can only be attributed to the district attorney's office.

This office is a black mark on the name of Contra Costa County. Francis Collins should be defeated for reelection.

I don't blame the "county machine." I blame you and me. We should see to it that he is defeated.

But who will run against him? I know of only one possible candidate—John Nejedly, Walnut Creek city attorney and attorney for the Sanitary District. John has the background and ability to do it. I sincerely hope he runs.

Whew—I went off the deep end, didn't I?

Ray Taylor keeps fences mended

Supervisor from District 3 (Walnut Creek-Martinez-Concord)? Incumbent Ray Taylor has been campaigning ever since the last election. Ray is a smooth politician. He keeps his fences mended. He has been a supervisor for some years and is an old hand at it. As a real estate broker and an insurance broker, he constantly faces problems of "conflict of interest." He has lots of friends and lots of enemies.

Arnold Bjork lost to him by only 300-some votes seven years ago. Last election Les Iford was a weak, weak candidate and Taylor walked in. At present, no name is being seriously mentioned as a candidate against Taylor. However, there are people anxious to beat him and if the right man tosses his hat in, he should get powerful support.

In the Richmond area, Ivan Goyak faces reelection to the Board of Supervisors. I don't know anything about this race.

County school superintendent?

Interesting and important will be the campaign for county school superintendent, incumbent B. O. Wilson is retiring. Candidates so far include Dr. Lewis Ferrari, principal of the Pittsburg Junior High School; William Reed, principal of an Antioch elementary school, and Dr. Floyd Marchus, director of research, county school office. Not announced as yet are Dr. Harold W. Karr, county assistant superintendent of schools, and Ralph Harris, superintendent of schools of the Sheldon School District.

An unusual contest is shaping up for a Superior Court judgeship. Tom Fraga, Martinez attorney and judge, was appointed to the newly-created bench some months ago, despite the tremendous pressure on Governor Knight to appoint Tom McBride, Concord city attorney and also second in command of the county district attorney's office.

It is most unusual (but not wrong) for anyone to run against an incumbent judge. McBride is going to oppose Fraga. This could be a dilly.

Observers thought McBride would be appointed to Judge Harold Jacoby's bench when Jacoby resigns. (Judge Jacoby is waiting to sell his home before he retires. He then plans to move to Carmel.) Apparently McBride is not going to get the appointment or he would not run against Fraga. I heard that Knight now favors Attorney Bernheim, a Richmond attorney. But this is not for sure.

Judgeship campaign fascinating

The campaign for judge of the Walnut Creek Judicial District (Orinda-Lafayette-Walnut Creek) will be fascinating. Candidates so far: Fred Kracke, Betsy Fitzgerald, George Walker, Vernon Patterson, Jackson Davis and John Forde—all local attorneys. Walnut Creek Mayor John Connelly will run if he passes a qualifying examination he must take because he is not an attorney. Others may run!

School district elections are in May. Deadline for filing is approaching. There are other district races, too. Walnut Creek City Council race is discussed in story in the front section.

Yes, this is going to be an interesting year. We'll do our best to keep you informed.

Miss Julianne McHaney Wed

Mr. and Mrs. Easton Willey, Orinda, have announced the marriage of their daughter, the former Miss Julianne McHaney, to Wallace Lee French, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter French of Huntington Park.

The marriage took place January 10 in the Treasure Island Chapel with the Rev. Father Schnurr officiating.

The new Mrs. French wore a lace and net bridal dress with a satin cummerbund. She wore a crown of stephanotis and pearl with a fingertip veil. Her bouquet was a white orchid attached to a mother of pearl prayer book with white satin streamers, rosettes and stephanotis.

The maid of honor was Miss Paulen Paulsen, a former roommate of the bride. She wore a light blue chiffon dress of street length and carried pink carnations and baby roses. The best man was James French, brother of the bridegroom, who came to the ceremony from Anaheim. Ushers were Ted Rimer and Hank Cook.

A reception, featuring champagne, hot and cold hors d'oeuvres, and the traditional cake, was held at the Treasure Island officers' club immediately following the ceremony. Flowers

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER

Oh! These lucky winter vacationers! For instance Orindans Peggy and Stan Majka, who have returned from an extensive motor trip through Mexico, are still floating on a non motor driven cloud.

They feel as if they absolutely absorbed the history and atmosphere of that exotic land. The Maikas and their children visited most of Mexico's 28 states—thoroughly covering 14 of them. They feel that the education their children received from studying Spanish, geography and the Mexican arts was worth one-half of a year in college.

Also visiting Mexico were Courtney and Tom Powers—a great deal of their vacation was spent in Acapulco, that city of cities.

Lois and Jim Howe have just returned from a combination business and pleasure trip. Flying all the way—some of the stops they made were in Florida, Nassau and New Orleans.

BARBARA AND ROBERT Kuhn of Orinda had as their house guest for several days, Barbara's aunt, Mrs. Walter Bird of Boston, who is making an around the world trip on the President Polk. Mrs. Bird had never been in the Bay Area before—so you can imagine the mad pace set as the Kuhns tried to fit all of our wonderful sights into those few short days. This will come as no surprise, Mrs. Bird was "sold."

Mary and Bill Wolfe who love to fish above all else, have been spending all of their weekends, rain (and HASN'T it?) or shine, at their cottage on the Sacramento River. They say that the quiet and peace following each week's hectic activities just cannot be equalled. Sounds like a pretty good prescription.

And it's cold enough right here

Now to the colder side of the travel story. The John F. Joyce and their son, Michael, will be spending a long weekend in February at Norton—for skiing, of course.

And, for the same purpose, the George Bruns Jr. family spent several days at Granilichen. And that about finishes up the "Bliesner Travelogue" for this week.

Now, to party news. Donna (Mrs. Bill) Winslow invited many of her neighbors in for the most scrumptious desserts and coffee last week. Wish I could describe those two concoctions. One was of strawberries and angel food cake—all laced together in some mysterious way and the other was a huge mound of cake and lemon custard.

The three older Winslow children were in school—but tiny and adorable Laura, eight months, was happily bounced from knee to knee.

Some of the guests were Wanda Obert, Trude Marten, Marge Ramsey (looking so attractive in a kelly green frock with a widely flared skirt and long tight sleeves), Esther Derrod, Joan Kalberg, Romo Lee (who is the MOST sparkling beauty) and Gwen Upshaw—who was busily receiving congratulations, for her husband Jim had just been named for the Distinguished Service Award—"Young Man of the Year" by the Junior Chamber of Commerce of Walnut Creek.

Persis and Dick Reed were hosts to their regular Saturday night bridge club recently. The club meets every six months. The Reeds served dinner to Madge and Ed Pag from Danville, Courtney and Tom Powers of Walnut Creek and Eleanor and John Wright of Lafayette.

Parties preceded by parties

Marge and Neve Warburton are inviting friends to a party preceding the Larks' (Marge is the president) Mardi Gras at the Diablo Country Club. Coming out from Piedmont to be guests in the lovely Warburton home will be the R. A. Claytons, Forrest Knights, and Ward B. Saunders. The Jack Putmans of Orinda and the A. H. Branstads, J. L. Lindemuths, John Menz and Marvin Lees, all of Lafayette, also will be present. Incidentally, the John Menz have just recently moved to this area. They fell in love with and bought the well known Barrow's place in Reliez Valley.

MARGE WARBURTON was telling me that she and Marge Harris had a most wonderful day last week. They motored over to Atherton where they had lunch and spent the afternoon with charming Shirley Marchant (Mrs. Teller) Weimann whom MANY of you will remember—a former, popular Lafayette resident.

The Weimanns are living in the former Fleischacker home there which apparently is fabulous, and they are smack in the middle of remodeling. The girls report that Shirley and her rapidly growing children looked just wonderful!

Mary Sibley had planned to accompany them—but husband, Sherman, had different ideas, namely spending a few days at Del Monte Lodge. NOT a bad idea—what?

The Republican Women's Club entertained with its membership tea at Connie Keyton's home in Lafayette recently. Katy (Mrs. William) Ornduff and Jean (Mrs. William) Hall were busily signing in new members. Some of the interesting and interested guests attending were Nell (Mrs. K. P.) Tolles, Alice (Mrs. Robert) Bridges, Alvira (Mrs. E. D.) Cardin, Ruth (Mrs. Bud) Edwards, Betty Pugh, Mrs. John Pike and Helen (Mrs. R. B.) Brattain, who, with her husband, had just returned from a two weeks vacation in Carmel.

The St. Perpetua's Guild is having its Luncheon-fashion show will be modeled in the show — to be called "Fashion is Magic — Thursday at the Diablo Country Club. Clothes from Joseph Magnins (how I do wish some kind of magic could disperse with the "chemise!")

Mrs. H. J. Lenahan is chairwoman of the affair which should truly be a lovely one and interested persons should contact Mrs. G. Singer, AT 3-2203 for tickets.

Acalanes DAR Citizenship Tea Scheduled

The Acalanes Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will have a Citizenship Tea on Monday at the Lafayette home of Mrs. Elliott Johnson, 3418 St. Mary's Road. Mrs. James R. Box will be co-hostess.

The guests of honor will include Mrs. Scott Roundtree of Piedmont, State Chairman of DAR. Good Citizenship Committee; Mrs. Milliam A. Siefker, Miss Vera Richardson, Dean of Girls, Acalanes High School, and Pat Siefker, Lafayette.

Pat will be awarded the Good Citizenship Pin by Mrs. Roundtree. This is an annual award given to a senior High School girl from each state who is chosen by the faculty and her classmates because she possesses, to an outstanding degree, the qualities of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism in combination with academic achievement.

The meeting will also honor the proclamation of Gov. Goodwin J. Knight that February be American History month.

Towee Therapy Group Meets

Towhee Unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center met on January 28 at the home of Mrs. Robert Leland, 195 El Camino Corto, Walnut Creek. Mrs. David Purrington was co-hostess.

Mrs. Lawrence Dodge, newly elected president, presided at the meeting. Officers serving with her are Mrs. William Phelan Jr., vice president; Mrs. Robert Leland, recording secretary; Mrs. Ernest Jager, corresponding secretary; Mrs. David Purrington, treasurer.

New chairman appointed for the year are Mrs. Charles Rodier, representative to the therapy board of directors; Mrs. Robert Wisecarver, C. M. Dahlgren and Rix Maurer Jr., council representatives; Mrs. Mervyn O'Donnell, magazine; Mrs. John H. Valley home with Mrs. Harold Raley; aids; Mrs. John Gallaher, telephone; Mrs. F. M. Hair bills; Mrs. Gerald Ball, publicity. Mrs. Alan Scott will be chairman for the annual Christmas Tea.

Welcomed as new Towhee members were Mrs. Rupert Lewis, Walnut Creek, and Mrs. George Monheit, Lafayette.

Sleepy Hollow. Following dinner, a game called "Skittleboard" was played — which, from reports, must be loads of fun.

Those trying to out-do each other were, Marilyn and Bob Hampton, Dorothy and Art Lumblad, Edith and Bill Scatena, Gloria and Frank Brown, and Stella and Bob Boyle. Edith and Bill brought along the colored slides taken at their last two Christmas dancing parties and they certainly made a "hit."

Poor little burro—just missing

Laura and Frank Dutra are lamenting, these days, the fact that their "landmark" has been spirited away. Spirited is hardly the word for the life sized burro weighed more than 200 pounds. The little fellow had become so familiar, not only to the Dutras, but to all of their neighbors who always knew they were close to home when they passed by it.

A regular bride tied the concrete animal to the fence and on its back it carried a little pack which Laura kept filled — its contents depending on the season. At Christmas time the pack was filled with gaily wrapped gifts; during the summer months it was filled with cactus, etc. The neighboring children loved to pose on or by it for photographs.

At any rate, strange as it may seem, the burro is gone. There just couldn't be very many like it — so if, by some chance, you should happen to spot one in your wanderings, do call the Dutras.

In a statement found by her grieving family after her departure, Mrs. Averco explained the unexpected move, blaming her husband's blindness for her action.

"It just isn't worth it any more," Mrs. Averco wrote. "I've always tried to do a good job, and I've been real conscientious about my buying. I always looked for a better, easier, lower cost way to buy food."

Perpetua Guild Plans Fashion Show-Luncheon

With time moving as swiftly as a magician's hands pulling a rabbit out of a hat, plans are nearing completion for the fashion show-luncheon to be presented by the Womens' Guild of St. Perpetua's Catholic Church, Lafayette, at noon Thursday.

The first social event on the Guild's 1958 calendar will be held at the Diablo Country Club and will have "Fashion Is Magic" as its theme. Mrs. Hugh J. Lenahan is general chairman of the affair, at which Joseph Magnin's, Walnut Creek, will preview their spring fashion picture.

Mrs. Elsa Niemann, manager of the Designers' Department at Magnin's, will be the commentator.

WITH THE INTRODUCTION of the chemise, one of the most radical changes in the fashion picture since the post-war "new look", the emphasis will be on color as well as accessories. Print shoes, hats, rope jewelry, the new, flatter purses will accent the chemise ensembles as well as the "easy look" sheaths. The high shades, hot orange, clear yellow, bristol blue, a flush of strong pinks and greens ranging from fern to deep moss will be featured. "Orange-Flip" and "Mocha-Polka" are part of the cosmetic color picture created to enhance the fashions to be shown at the luncheon.

Members of the Guild who will model are the Mesdames Richard E. Coleman, Robert E. Buckley, Thomas J. Stack, Edwin R. Parks, William H. McLnerney, Gerald Kruse, Walter H. Markstein, George Tobias and N. C. Izett, with Mrs. Rickey Shea as model coordinator.

First Round of Hoop Play Ends Tuesday

Diablo on Top; Locals Lagging In Hoop Circuit

Next week finds the final round of the first half of league play on tap Tuesday with the second half games following next Friday night. All Tuesday games open with the Bees at 3:30 p.m., while on Fridays it's the lightweights again opening at 7:30 p.m.

Diablo is currently the only undefeated varsity club with Pittsburg and Pacifica one game behind.

In the Bees, Pitt leads the pack and are an odds-on favorite to end up in the two spot.

Pittsburg and Pacifica clash tonight at Pacifica and this could be a real close one. The Pacifica crew have considerable strength. A loss means a real uphill climb while a win would keep a club in striking distance of Diablo-Pacifica, but close.

Other games tonight find Los Lomas and rival Acalanes at Acalanes. The Dons have worked out for them and will have to rely on strong defensive play.

The nod to the Knights in another close one, Pleasant Hill plays at Miramonte and the Matadors may find the going rough again. The Rams can beat anyone at the best. Miramonte lacks depth and experience—a Ram win with the Matadors making it close for a half.

Diablo plays at Antioch and winds up the first half undefeated. Diablo hosts Las Lomas next Tuesday for the start of the second half. Diablo won their last outing with the Knights and with their home court figure to repeat but not by too much of a margin—even money, the Devils: a long shot, the Knights.

Pleasant Hill beat Antioch at home 49-32. This time it's at Antioch but still a Ram win. Kirkpatrick and Cervantes will trouble Pleasant Hill but not enough to win.

Pacific edged Acalanes 47-44 in the first round. This time it's at Acalanes and that means trouble for Pacifica. The edge still goes to Pacifica who have a good first club with more scoring potential than the Dons.

Miramonte outplayed Pittsburg the first half in their opening game but were rapped in the second half for a 52-19 loss.

It will be rough at Pittsburg—home crowd and home court added to an already good advantage in size and experience spells defeat for the Matadors.

Pirates Vie For 1st Place

The Pittsburg Pirates stayed hot on the heels of the league-leading Concord Red Devils by racking Antioch 57-45 last Friday night.

Eleven Pirates hit the scoring column to register the win. Pittsburg led 11-0 in the first quarter and were never headed as they kept in front all the way. Antioch's Dave Kirkpatrick took game scoring honors with 18. He is currently leading the individual scoring race.

In the preliminary, the Pittsburg Bees stayed unbeaten as they waxed Antioch 44-34. The games were played at Pittsburg.

The meeting place will be the Orinda theatre parking lot, 9 a.m.

Diablo Raps Rams 44-36

The Pleasant Hill varsity became victim number seven of the Diablo Red Devils last Tuesday afternoon when they lost in their home gym 44-36.

The Rams threw a scare into the opposition when they took a 10-6 first quarter lead. Diablo took over in the second quarter as they hit for a 19-13 half-time lead.

The Rams had trouble at the hoop in the second half, managing but seven points in each of the final two quarters while Diablo, paced by Ron Tibulski, scored 12 in 13 in that order to register the 44-36 win.

Tibulski took scoring honors with 16 (5 FG-6 FT) along with Bill Locatelli of Pleasant Hill who connected on 7 field goals and a pair of free throws for another sweet sixteen.

The game was actually much closer than the final tally showed. Diablo led by a scant two points with two minutes to go. A field goal and a pair of foul shots by the Devils proved to be the turning point.

Diablo again won on the boards, collecting 33 rebounds to 17 for the Rams. In field goals, Pleasant Hill hit 15 x 41 while Diablo had 13 x 45.

The Bee game went to the Rams by a comfortable margin, 29-18, with the Rams' Ron Yamamoto scoring 14 points.

Things to remember about fires while camping are to keep the fire as small as is reasonable for the kind of cooking to be done and to build it in a safe protected place.

Dons Split With Panthers: Varsity 47-39; Bees 26-31

Tuesday afternoon found the Acalanes Dons traveling to Antioch and when the final whistle had blown the Dons had a 47-39 win while the Acalanes Bees dropped a weird 31-26 decision.

In the varsity game the Dons came up with another tight defensive display to account for the win.

THE DONS outscored the home club two for one in the first quarter taking a 10-5 lead only to have each club quicken the scoring pace in the second quarter as each hit for 13 markers.

The third period found defensive play dominating with Acalanes picking up a point as they outscored the Panthers 8-7.

The Dons outscored Antioch 16-14 in the final quarter with the home clubs chances really hampered when their league leading scorer Dave Kirkpatrick went out on personal fouls.

MAC HANCOCK came up with another fine performance for the Dons as he collected 14 points on three field goals and eight free throws.

The senior forward grabbed 17 rebounds and has been a stand-out in recent play as he has sparked the Dons to the win column.

Another Don player who showed to advantage with his floor play as well as his scoring was Dave Bojarsky—he hit for 11 points on four field goals and two free throws.

Kirkpatrick had 12 before going out on fouls but teammate Gil Cervantes edged him in the scoring column with 13 on four field goals and five free throws.

In the Bee game, the Acalanes team took 24 shots in the first half without hitting a field goal. They did hit five free throws to trail 11-5 at the mid point and came back to tie it up 26-26 at the end of the regulation four quarters of play.

In the overtime it was all Antioch as they won 31-26. Steve Lamphere was high for the Don Bees with nine points.

Red Devils Are Top Team But Sadly Lacking in Depth

By ERWIN MATTSON

The current basketball race finds Diablo leading the varsity hoop and Pittsburg number one in the Bees.

Diablo has had several close games but has had the ability to pull away in the closing minutes.

Diablo Coach Charley Karp has been forced to use his top five most of the way, particularly in recent games.

His top five are good but depth is evidently lacking. Injury, illness or ineligibility could really hurt.

The other factor is that every club will be gunning for the leaders and the heat will really be on.

MY GUESS is that Diablo will not go undefeated but will still win, as every other club will lose at least one more. In the lightweights, I peg Pittsburg as a winner—just too much all-around ability.

The first Contra Costa wrestling tournament will be held at Pacifica next Friday, February 8th. The first matches start at 10 a.m. and run all day with the finals taking place 7:30 p.m.

Each school can enter one man in a division and that means a lot of matches with twelve weights—running from 105 through heavy—involved.

Schools entering are Diablo, Pleasant Hill, Miramonte, Pacifica, Pittsburg and Acalanes.

Dons Varsity, Bees Whip Rams in Two Close Ones

In a pair of hard-fought and well-played games, the Acalanes Dons emerged as winners over the Pleasant Hill Rams, copping the Bee game 44-40 and taking two overtime periods to take the varsity win 38-36.

In the varsity game, playing in a small but packed Acalanes gym, the two clubs gave the fans a show all the way as neither club could gain much of an advantage from the opening whistle.

As a matter of unusual record, each club scored an identical number of points in each of the regulation quarters and then scored a similar number of identical points in the first overtime before the issue was decided in the second period of overtime play.

It was 9-9 in the first quarter, 20-20 at the half, and 30-30 tie at the end of the third quarter. Both clubs went cold at the hoop in the final canto, scoring four points apiece to bring the count to 36 all at the buzzer.

In the first three-minute overtime, Bill Locatelli hit a 15-footer from the side for the Rams, only to have the Dons' Dewaine Stults lay one up to tie it again and force the game into the second overtime.

Both clubs played cautiously and with seconds to go Morgan Jellett hit on a drive and layup with time running out before any more scoring could take place.

The two teams were lukewarm all evening at the hoop but part of it was due to some sterling defensive play on the part of both teams.

The Rams collected 10 field goals and made good on 16 free throws while Acalanes had 15 field goals and 8 points from the free throw line.

Mac Hancock, senior forward, was a standout for the winners, particularly on his offensive board play. He took individual scoring honors with 13 (3 FG-7 FT).

Locatelli hit for 8 points with four field goals as did Jellett for Acalanes.

Knights Boggled by Spartan Speed on W. C. Woods

The Pacifica Spartans continued to be the surprise of the DVAL basketball hoop as they upset the Las Lomas Knights Friday night.

The game, played at Walnut Creek, found Pacifica's George Trotter icing the contest when he hit a spin shot with 10 seconds to go putting the visitors ahead to stay 45-42.

BOTH CLUBS scored again, but the results were the same as Tom Nichols netted a free throw for the Knights and Pacifica's Benny Westbrook made good on another to balance the books.

Las Lomas started slow trailing 11-10 in the opening quarter and losing ground at the half as they were behind 24-19.

The Knights made a gallant third quarter bid for outscoring the Spartans 12-7 and then pulled up to within one point (43-42) with ten seconds on the clock.

TROTTER TOOK game scoring honors with 15 on six field goals and three free throws with teammate Wally Coffman not far behind with 12 on six field goals.

Nichols paced the Knights with his nine.

In the field goal department it was close as Pacifica netted 20 of 45 while for Las Lomas it was 19 for 39.

Each team connected on six free throws with Pacifica missing two and Las Lomas five.

In the Bee game, the fans got their money's worth in another thriller which went to Sparta 38-35. Top scorer was Dennis Lawrence of Las Lomas with 11 while Al Burton hit for 10 for Sparta.

Bowls Top Game

Madelon Bailey, Monument Catering, rolled a 497 series and a 201 game in the Tuesday night women's handicap league at Monument Bowl.

Union Ice Delivery, Farr's TV and Kay's Coffee Shop scored three points over Martin Brothers, Yellow Cab and Monument Catering respectively. Stone's Mens' Wear and Woodside Builders split the four points. Kay's, with twelve wins and four losses, moved into a first place tie with Stone's. Woodside and Monument shared the second place division with eight and eight.

Spartans Roll Over Miramonte

The Pacifica Spartans, who are rapidly asserting themselves in basketball, posted another pair of wins last Tuesday afternoon when they invaded Orinda and came off with another 48-36 varsity win and a win in the Bees 42-28.

Miramonte did well enough in the first quarter, leading 11-9. The Matadors faded in the second quarter when they collected but four points, all by Bill Houston who got a field goal and hit two for two from the free throw line. Pacifica, on the other hand, garnered 17 points with six players hitting the scoring column.

The Matadors picked up six points in the third quarter, outscoring the visitors 12-8 but it was to no avail as far as winning was concerned when Pacifica meshed 16 points to 9 in the final quarter.

Center George Trother was Pacifica's big gun, taking game honors with 14.

Jerry Voorhis to Speak To Co-op Gathering

"In Today's World—The Place of Consumers Cooperatives" and subtitled "What Has a Can of Beans to Do with Sputnik?" is the provocative address to be given by Jerry Voorhis tomorrow at 6 p.m. at a public meeting to be held at the Walnut Creek Methodist Church, 1543 Sunnyvale Avenue, Pleasant Hill.

Voorhis was a congressman from Los Angeles from 1937 to 1946, during which time Washington newspaper correspondents voted him "the hardest working Congressman." He is author of "The Christian in Politics" in which he related religious beliefs to political action.

Voorhis is the executive director of the Cooperative League of the U.S.A. and a member of the executive committee of the International Cooperative Alliance which has 40 member nations representing a total of 125 million persons.

Voorhis' speech will highlight a two-day Associated Cooperatives' Annual Meeting with the Berkeley-Walnut Creek society acting as host in the meeting room of the Cooperative Center at 1510 Geary Road.

Proceeding the open evening meeting will be a dinner. Members and the public are invited to purchase tickets at $2 per plate. The dinner will feature a half-hour's entertainment of skits and songs by local member talent. Tickets may be obtained at the offices of the Center on Geary Road, or by phone.

Delegates from all sections of the state will convene February 1 at 10 a.m. after registering. Discussions will include international cooperative affairs, credit union problems, consumer information and education, advent of cooperative insurance in the state.

REPORTS WILL BE heard from delegations from Fort Bragg, Palo Alto, Santa Monica, Hollywood, Whittier, Los Angeles and Berkeley.

The windup business session will be held on Sunday from 9 a.m. to 12. While the Berkeley-Walnut Creek society will have 10 official delegates, all sessions are open to Co-op members.

The 8 p.m. address by Voorhis is gratuitous to members and the public, according to J. Richard Johnston of Lafayette. He will serve as general chairman for the annual meeting.

Crescent to Open New Shop Center

Victor H. Graber, president of Crescent Jewelers, has announced the addition of another store at El Cerrito to the Crescent Jewelry chain. This shopping center will serve customers in El Cerrito, Berkeley, Albany, Richmond, and adjacent communities.

This will be the seventh unit serving the Greater Bay Area. Other stores in Walnut Creek, Oakland, San Francisco, Hayward, Santa Rosa and Visalia. Graber began the Crescent Organization in 1940. Basing the principle of quality merchandise at lowest prices and at friendliest credit terms, he has managed to build Crescent Jewelers to where it is today. He is now planning further additional stores. A lease has already been signed for a shopping center at South Shore Center in Alameda.

Every teabag has from 20 to 30 different kinds of tea.

Christian Science Topic Announced

Divine Love's inexhaustible power and abundance will be brought out Sunday at Christian Science services.

Christian Science churches are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1247 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. The Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill meets at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

Matthew's account (ch.8) of the healing by Christ Jesus of the centurion's servant will be included in the Bible passages to be read in the Lesson-Sermon on "Love."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (49:10): "Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need. It is not well to imagine that Jesus demonstrated the divine power to heal only for a select number or for a limited period of time, since to all mankind and in every hour, divine Love supplies all good."

The Golden Text is from I John (4:7): "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God."

Scout Observance Set February 6

Boy Scout Week will be observed throughout the Mt. Diablo area of Contra Costa County and Berkeley and Albany in Alameda County from February 6 to 13.

During the week Mt. Diablo Council, Boy Scouts, will feature demonstrations of Scouting activities in the seven districts throughout the area with some 21,000 boys.

Local B'Nai B'rith lodges will provide ribbons, certificates and plaques for the troops taking part. This year marks the 48th anniversary of Scouting in America. On February 9, youths will attend local churches in uniform for "Scout Sunday."

Jewish Scouts will observe their Scout Sabbath on February 7. Theme for The Scout Week Observance will be "Onward for God and My Country."

If a year's supply of medical oxygen were evenly distributed, every American could breathe it for an average of 71 minutes.

Local Group Protests End Of State Mental Clinic

Contra Costa and Alameda Counties stand to lose critically needed psychiatric treatment services if the Departments of Finance and Mental Hygiene's plan to discontinue the Berkeley State Mental Hygiene Clinic July 1, 1959 is carried out, according to the Citizens Community Mental Health Coordinating Committee. Meeting in Martinez last week, the committee voted to oppose this premature attempt to force these services before they are in a position to do so.

UNDER THE SHORT-DOYLE Act, passed in the last session, the state legislature moved to aid local communities to establish mental health services by providing state subsidies on a 50/50 basis. Contra Costa County's Board of Supervisors voted last month to establish a program under this Act. Alameda County has yet to do so. It was explained that if the state carries out its plan, it will deprive citizens in this area of a facility now being utilized to full capacity and having a demand for its services so great that it can accept for treatment only one of four persons who apply to it. The feeling of the committee is that it takes years to establish a clinic and training program and that the investment in such a facility should not be tossed aside lightly.

THE COMMITTEE believes that the state should, in any case, allow sufficient time for the local communities either to assume financial responsibility for the existing facility gradually, or to do the careful planning and secure the necessary local funds to make the establishment of equivalent services possible.

The loss of the Berkeley Mental Hygiene Clinic would be particularly serious, Mrs. Arthur M. Ross, of Lafayette, Chairman of the Coordinating Committee, stated. She pointed out that not only is this clinic treating over 800 outpatients a year, but it is a training center for psychiatrists and other professional workers in the field. It is a well established fact, Mrs. Ross said, that the need for trained personnel far exceeds those presently practicing and those who can be trained in the foreseeable future.

THE BERKELEY MENTAL Hygiene Clinic, in addition to its regular staff of seven and the twelve psychiatrists in private practice who donate time, serves each year as a training center for six M.D.'s specializing in psychiatry. It is to sources such as this that local communities must look for the additional trained personnel for their programs.

The Berkeley Clinic is entirely financed by federal funds and is administered by the state Department of Mental Hygiene.

Valley Art Center held its monthly meeting at Vallejo school, on January 22. Mr. S. G. Cluver, outgoing president turned his office over to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ward, new co-presidents for 1958.

Determined to carry on the program of last year's board members are: Mr. and Mrs. Glen Max, as first vice presidents; Mr. Julian Stern, treasurer; Mrs. Helen MacFarlane, secretary; Mrs. Rawlings Simon, membership chairman; Mrs. Richard Johnston, publicity; Mrs. Jack Martosoff, exhibitions; Mrs. Parker Stack and Mrs. Chas. Bishop, rental gallery; Mrs. Robert Love, permanent art center.

The coming year holds great promise for Valley Art Center. Plans for the Center's art classes, and an expanded schedule of classes are presently being organized by the group.

Mrs. Rawlings Simon, Lafayette, committee general chairman, discussed plans for the forthcoming membership campaign with Lafayette chairman, Mrs. Julian Stern, and Walnut Creek Chairman Mrs. Henry White.

Mrs. Robert H. Stratton, Jr., Mrs. Maurice Boevers and Mrs. Bernice Mills, Lafayette; Mrs. Stanley Bush, Concord, and Mrs. William Borrie, Orinda, contributed their ideas for the coming campaign for 1958.

Enjoy MORE POWER IN YOUR HOME!

Many families are enjoying their homes only half as much as they should because of skimpy, outdated wiring.

Homes that were wired to handle only lights and a radio cannot safely take on a TV, an electric range, refrigerator, freezer, toaster, garbage disposal, mixer, automatic washer, automatic dryer, and a dishwasher. The extra load on outdated wiring results in blown fuses or fire hazards, as well as poor performance from appliances.

Yet these wonderful electric servants can double your enjoyment of modern living, when you have enough HOUSEPOWER. So, if you are a home owner, or building, or remodeling, call an electrical contractor using qualified electricians, and enjoy HOUSEPOWER!

Adequate lighting also cuts errors, increases property value. Keep up with competitors—commercial use of electricity has doubled in the past 10 years.

Enjoy MORE POWER IN SCHOOLS AND INDUSTRY!

In schools good lighting results in faster, more accurate learning, cuts fatigue and eyestrain, encourages students with a psychologically pleasant atmosphere. In factories the best lighting cuts costs by as much as 25%, accidents by 50%, and spoilage by as much as 90%.

County Roads Will Require Enormous Sums

A figure too staggering to contemplate—9.4 billion dollars—will be needed to improve California's tremendous network of county roads sufficiently to handle traffic in 1971. Moreover, the number of county maintained road miles will jump from 67,000 to 96,000 by that time.

This startling picture of future county road needs is revealed in a survey made public today by the County Supervisors Association of California.

William R. MacDougall, General Counsel and Manager of the Association, declared that unless the counties are given substantial financial help by the state and federal governments in the immediate future, the outlook for better county roads is dismal indeed.

The survey is based upon reports made by California's 58 county road commissioners to the State Division of Highways last August in compliance with the Federal Highway Act of 1956.

Congress, which will make a study of equity in Federal taxation for highways in 1958, called for each state to project an estimate of the cost if improving state highways, county roads and city streets to 1971.

This means that for the first time California counties have projected their road construction requirements 15 years into the future. Now that the needs are known, the next step is to seek additional revenue sources to finance the huge program, which is almost 5 times the total state budget for the present fiscal year.

MacDougall said the Association's survey will be the basis for the counties' future argument in the Legislature for a fair share of highway funds.

The projected needs of Contra Costa County for the 15 year period beginning July 1, 1956, and ending July 1, 1971, is $287,349,000.

The first teabag was invented in New York City in 1904.

LEARNING the technique of percussion, as demonstrated by San Francisco Symphony soloist Richard Kohloff, were Andre Hopper, Catherine Fisherman, Rochelle Jelonik and Susan Abbey, left to right. They and hundreds of other boys and girls and their parents were thrilled by the music of the great symphony orchestra, presented through the auspices of the Youth Concerts group, Sunday. Two more programs are planned in the 1958 series.

STUDYING THE PROGRAM for the first 1958 Youth Concert held Sunday were, left to right, Mrs. Charles Price, Youth Concerts president, Frederick Freeman and Mrs. Paul Jacobus, board members. The event was held at Las Lomas High School, and featured the San Francisco Symphony. The next in the series is February 23, when folk singer and balladist William Clauson will appear. —Sun photo by Jim Guthrie

Chaplain Dies At St. Mary's

Saint Mary's men yesterday mourned the passing of their chaplain, the Very Rev. Joseph H. Servente, O. P. S. T. L., S. T. L., who died suddenly late January 21 after suffering a heart attack.

Father Servente, 36, was stricken in his room in DeLaSalle Hall while chatting with one of his students. Taken to Providence Hospital, he was pronounced dead on arrival.

A Requiem High Mass was offered Saturday at St. Vincent's Ferrer, Vallejo.

Father Servente was born in Vallejo. He attended St. Vincent's Ferrer Grammar and High School in Vallejo and the University of San Francisco before entering the Dominican novitiate at Ross, where he received his habit in September, 1940.

Before coming to Saint Mary's in 1954, he was assistant to the Master of Novices at Ross. At Saint Mary's he has served as instructor in philosophy as well as student body chaplain.

On behalf of the faculty and administration of Saint Mary's College, Brother S. Albert, F.S.C., president, said:

"Father Servente will not soon be forgotten. His teachings and service will continue to have a powerful influence on the students he served so well. Saint Mary's College, its faculty and student body will forever be indebted to the Dominican Order for sending Father Servente to us."

PTA Cites Doyle, Mooney For Service

A Lafayette man and a Walnut Creek man were among nine Contra Costa men and women honored for service to youth by the 32nd District of the California PTA.

Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle, Lafayette, and Archie J. Mooney, Walnut Creek, were cited by the parent-teachers group for outstanding service to youth.

Assemblyman Doyle was awarded for service on the Assembly Election Committee during which he initiated and supported numerous legislation for the improvement of public school education, for co-authoring the state scholarship bill and for promoting the allocation of millions of dollars for new school construction throughout the state, including $52,600,000 for Contra Costa County.

Mooney, former Chief of the Division of Apprenticeship Standards, was cited for 50 years of service to California youth as founder and head of the apprenticeship training program. He was also cited for his continuing work to improve and increase vocational - educational opportunities for able youth.

Others who were honored at the annual Founders Day program at Mount Diablo Country Club Monday were County Librarian Bertha Hellum, Mrs. Berta M. Vail, Concord; Mrs. Evaline Webb, Antioch; Robert B. Claxton, Crockett; E. Reede Hardman and Victor L. Lindblad, both of Berkeley and Contra Costa, and John E. Motell, Richmond. All were awarded lifememberships.

In total, nine men and women had devoted more than 200 years to serving youth.

Transit News Post Created

The Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District is seeking applicants to fill the newly-created position of Public Information Officer, it was announced today by Robert K. Barber, president.

"We have adopted a statement of the District's objectives and are formulating plans to carry out those objectives. It is increasingly apparent that our program has implications of considerable impact which should develop continuous interest and critical review by political bodies and interested groups", he stated.

"To this end," Barber continued, "we are establishing a public information department to provide this necessary service and are seeking to fill the post as soon as possible."

Applications, indicating the candidate's qualifications, should be mailed by February 10, 1958 to the District's office, Claremont Hotel, Berkeley 5, California.

Further information may be obtained by calling the Administrative Officer, George M. Taylor, at THornwall 5-6610.

Broadway and Ava Have Much In Common

Ava Gardner has never been a visitor to the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, but both are alike in this respect: they have just about "everything."

For Ava, this needs no explanation, but for Broadway, well...

WHERE ELSE in the county can you find within a block or so shops devoted to slenderizing the American woman, and rooms where you can have that aching tooth pulled?

Where you can have glasses ground (that's right, it's a specialist's job) on the spot, according to prescription, and where you can take home the week's groceries?

WHERE YOU CAN drape your wife or husband in one store, and drape your home in another?

Where you can cut your weight by buying diet foods prescribed by a physician, and then have your hair cut, any style.

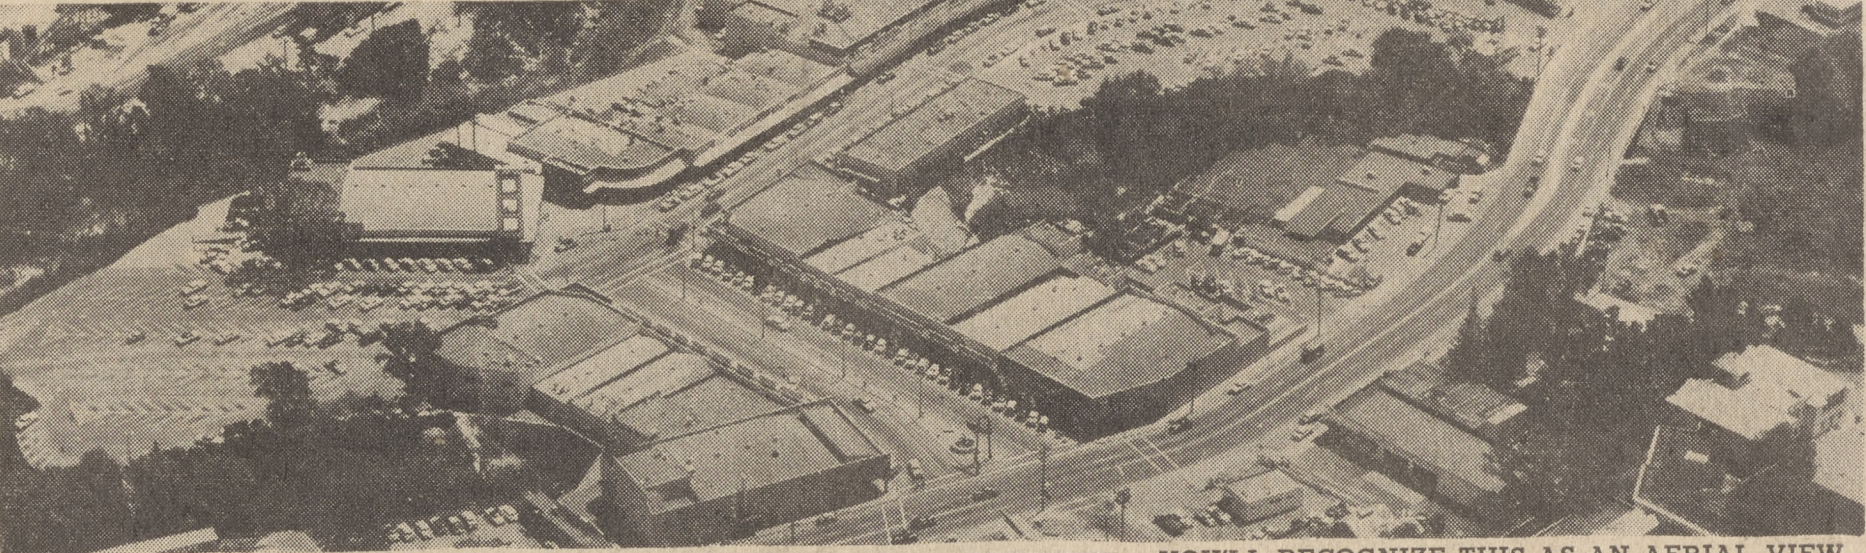

Where you can buy your wife those clothes to make her look nice during pregnancy, and then inquire about a loan up the street to handle those hospital bills?

WHERE YOU CAN buy ice cream for your bobby-sox date, or jewelry for your young "debutante" friend?

And, oh yes, where can you get good soup in a restaurant, and nuts and bolts in a hardware department—that's possible, too.

Yes, like Ava, Broadway has just about everything.

IT'S FUN TO SHOP AT BROADWAY WALNUT CREEK

Broadway Stores Are Open Friday Nights

Stores in the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, are open Friday nights for the convenience of families and persons who cannot find the time to shop during the day.

Merchants have also discovered that many families get a great deal of fun and pleasure out of visiting the stores together in the evening.

The late hours also give the family time to eat dinner at home or downtown, and still leisurely stop in at any number of stores, conveniently located within short distances in the center.

YOU'LL RECOGNIZE THIS AS AN AERIAL VIEW of one of the most outstanding and modern shopping centers in all of Northern California — Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek. Just one of its many features is the more than ample parking space for 1800 cars at one time. — Copeland photo, copyrighted.

Follow the Gold Arrow For Values!

Follow the Golden Arrow! This phrase will become the watchword today through Saturday as Broadway, Walnut Creek, holds its first annual Golden Arrow Days.

Planned to delight the most penny-saving shoppers, Golden Arrow Days have alerted Broadway merchants that this is their chance to show that the traditional after-Christmas bargains are still in effect.

"MAKE YOUR offers so good that they can't afford to say no," has been the advice of Broadway Merchants Association Chairman George Webster, and his advice has been followed. Committee work has been extensive.

The best offerings will not be hard to find, if you have an eye for the Golden Arrow!

The Golden Arrows in the windows and in the stores will point with pride to substantial reductions in prices.

WEBSTER ADDED, "The stores are chock-full of special values, on thousands of items, big and small."

"Every effort has been expended to make this event one of the most successful of the year. Now really is the time to buy, you know!"

Its inauguration is notice that Broadway, Walnut Creek, intends to retain its reputation as one of the outstanding shopping centers in California.

BROADWAY GOLDEN ARROW DAYS!

Bridal Show at Capwell's Will Display Lovely Gowns

Now under way at Penney's in the Broadway Shopping Center, Walnut Creek, is a major remodeling of the downstairs store.

"We are expanding departments to make shopping easier in our downstairs store," said Clinton Newell, manager.

"Our home furnishings, draperies, curtains, piece goods, boys' and girls' departments will be enlarged with our customers' ease-of-shopping in mind."

A NEW rear entrance is being added, "to tie in with the completion of the 'little Master Plan' and additional parking spaces which will be available," according to Newell.

Penney's will celebrate completion of the remodeling with a big "opening" event during February, at which "bargains galore" will be offered, Newell stated.

"During the remodeling, Penney's will be open in all departments as usual, and work will proceed with as little inconvenience as possible to customers seeking Penney's values," the manager said.

PRIOR to the current remodeling project, Penney's Walnut Creek store, over the past six years, has expanded in space once and has modernized fixtures once.

"The remodeling of the downstairs store is another big step in our efforts to serve the people of Central Contra Costa County as efficiently and conveniently as possible," Newell observed.

Downstairs Remodeling Under Way at Penney's

Of very special interest to the bride-elect and her entourage will be Capwell's fabulous Spring Bridal Show, to take place Saturday, February 8, at 3 p.m. in Capwell's Second Floor Diablo Shop.

Here the bride-to-be will see a dazzling parade of the latest and loveliest of bridal gowns, as well as fashions for the bridesmaids and mother-of-the-bride.

Carrying bouquets of festive flowers, professional models will give the future bride a preview of the styles that will highlight the most elegant of spring and summer weddings.

Important fashion news will be made as styles from the best-loved traditional to the chic modern are revealed to fashion-minded spectators.

This is the year's first Bridal Show to be presented at Capwell's-Walnut Creek.

Response has been so enthusiastic at Capwell's-Oakland, it was suggested that residents of the Central Contra Costa County area would also enjoy the show.

Everyone is cordially invited to Capwell's Diablo Shop, 3 p.m. Saturday, February 8. There will be no charge, of course.

Real Beauty In Quilt Garb

By BETTY

New spring sensation (color-wise and style-wise) is at Penney's in Broadway, Walnut Creek. Color matched quilt skirts with quilt trimmed blouses are offered.

"Yes, they're Penney's coordinates! The skirt has a wonderful, full flare that flatters all hip sizes, and the blouse has a quilted stand-up collar and those popular roll-up sleeves with a little quilted cuff," according to manager Clinton Newell.

These coordinates come in beautiful bright NEW SPRING SHADES—peach melba, cypress green, canary yellow, mocha brown and deep coral.

"They are a real boost to any spring wardrobe—and so easy on the budget!" he added.

'Fun' in Broadway Makes Betty Forget Job!

By BETTY

"It's fun to shop in Broadway!" This is a statement often heard, and this cub reporter was assigned to find out why there is a carnival light-heartedness about picking out life's necessities and luxuries in Broadway, Walnut Creek!

What is it about Broadway that turns a chore into a frolic? PARKING MY car in that vast lot behind Capwell's, I walked into the big store, watching for the people and their activities rather than the quality and reasonable prices of goods, which is a story in itself.

Peals of laughter caught my ear, and I looked to the Capwell's escalator, where a group of young boys and girls were at the bottom of the moving steps.

They clutched the hand rails carefully, grinned at each other, and stared backwards as they rose into the air.

One of the little girl's mother reminded her, "Now watch what you're doing, Deborah!"

A large group of people were using the connecting door to Gene Compton's, and the kids again seemed to take the lead, making bleating sounds of pleasure as they passed the pastry sections.

IT WAS EARLY afternoon, but already several family groups, mother, dad, and the younger generation sometimes numbering two, three and even four, were enjoying an early dinner in the restaurant.

Next I decided to try "Broadway," the shopping center's main street.

The day was sunny, the kind which seems to go with the spirit of Broadway. A car round the corner of Crocker Anglo Bank, where the driver had used the now famous drive-in teller service, and joined others in the street.

I FOUND MYSELF pleasantly surrounded with people chatting, pointing at windows, casually balancing brilliantly colored boxes and packages. A real standout, I recall, was that bright "J.M." Box.

Not everyone was casual and unhurried, of course, and this was a reminder that Broadway was there to serve the people of Contra Costa County, and some people wanted to get that service without delay!

A lady in her late 30's shouldered past me.

"Excuse me," she said, and hurried on.

She was either taking a few minutes off from her job to pick up some article, or else she had only a short time before she must rush home and begin fixing dinner for a hungry spouse, I decided.

COMING TO Kushin's store, I looked in to see more of those favorite citizens of Broadway—the children.

They were laughing and having a great time on those bouncing horses, which kids seem to love. Some of them hopped off wearing the famous Kushin's shoes!

At the next windows I noticed a handful of people studying a tasteful Sterling Furniture Company divan set. So I pressed on, till the rich tones of an organ reached my ears.

Why should it seem strange to see a robust, young businessman seated at an organ in Sherman Clay and Company's store, delivering the full power of "The Lost Chord"?

IT SHOULDN'T. Thousands of adults are taking to organ music these days, and the sales in stores such as Sherman Clay show it. The young man in the business suit switched to a rollicking "Tico-Tico," but at that moment the sign of Davis Donuts distracted me.

I like to keep my weaknesses secret, but with donuts, it's hopeless! Davis Donuts service is quick, and I decided to carry mine along with me, and be different! Besides, my boss said, "Take all the time you want, son, but step on it! Remember the deadline!"

THE SPINE TINGLING orchestration of "Warsaw Concerto" could be heard from the sidewalk in front of Music Town and inside, one booth had three girls pantomiming the Rock-and-Roll behind sound-muffling doors, another contained a single elderly gentleman listening intently to

FORSTMAN, THE NAME IN WOOL, makes for THE smartest outfit modeled by Ellen Voeth for Joseph Magnin's in Broadway. This creation is something brand new in the way of a suit. It buttons down the back and combines the marvelous, all-appropriate quality of a suit with the soft flattery of a dress. It comes in red, beige or black. The smart print hat is from a new collection. Shoes and accessories are from J.M., too

FREE PARKING

Even Peak Hour Parking Is Easy at Broadway, WC

"No one should have any trouble finding a parking place in Broadway, Walnut Creek," George Webster, chairman of the Broadway Merchants Association, said this week.

He added, "There are parking spaces for more than 1,800 cars in the center, and they are located so that very little walking is required to reach the stores."

"At peak hours, one parking lot may be nearly full, but there are other lots, and experience has shown that the parking is not difficult even then."

"It's usually quick and easy no matter what time of the day it is, and no matter what day," Webster said.

The Broadway developers were quick to see the needs of parking when they designed the center, and even since then they have opened new lots as necessary. More are now being constructed.

Broadway Betty:

Broadway Betty Has So Much Fun at Broadway

My job through Broadway was pleasant, and I would have liked to linger all day, but I remembered the boss and his stern comment that there was a paper to get out!

Well, he would just have to wait for a little while longer, like those parents are doing, as their twin sons each take a ride on the mechanical rides in the Lucky Store.

And I wasn't going to be rushed past Karl's Shoe Store, where the young citizens were making merry on the merry-go-round, or past Grande's Shoes where balloons, the prized possession of every child, are given away with great abandon!

BAM! ONE OF the balloons burst, but the Grande's Store man quickly handed the little girl another one—just in time to stop those tears before they began.

And where are those comic books coming from? From Kirby's Shoes, where the youngest again get a special token of good will.

I wondered what those Golden Arrows were in the windows up and down the street, and asked the lady in Leidy's Country Girl. She told me that it was the shopping center's way of pointing out special bargains and excused herself to help a young man, who was obviously somewhat unaccustomed to shopping for lingerie to give his wife, or was it his best girl?

Back on the street, I stopped in amazement.

A LADY IN A smartly tailored suit tugged on a leash, but "Trixie," as she called her small collie, was pulling with determination, and gratefully reached the small water pond in front of Grodins labeled "For Dogs."

Even a dog, if well behaved, has citizen's rights in Broadway, I thought to myself!

Passed the glittering windows of the Crescent Jewelry Store. Then, I noted with a surge of remembered joy, the Woolworth Store, which was my favorite place when a boy, and is still one of the most important stopping-off places for my wife!

The neat counters and bright colors, with every conceivable item, were still there, except for the tin soldiers I remembered.

THEY ARE NOW plastic soldiers, wrapped by the dozen in cellophane. You buy an "army," not just a soldier, now!

The sight of the Walnut Creek Florists display was also another sort of reminder—my wife's birthday coming up. I guess that would be just the thing for this year. She's sentimental, that way!

The boss told me to be especially sure to drop in the Senior's Junior Boot Shop and look over the Edwards Art Gallery on the wall. Future talent, no doubt.

While looking wistfully into the gleaming windows of Daniel Stucki Jewelers, and at the beautiful diamonds and watches—the watches reminded me to look at mine.

Good gosh!

I RACED for that well-known newsstand in front of the Broadway Pharmacy, fearing the worst. Sure enough, The Sun was out, and I was too late to write my story for that edition.

Well, the boss should have known better than to send me to Broadway in Walnut Creek without a "keeper," anyway! I'm human. I just forgot all about myself, and had a good time!
